Chinese Communists Launch Heavy Drive Against Suchow Stronghold

U. S. Bolsters Marine Force

NANKING—(UP)—Five communist columns totaling 100,000 men were driving on Suchow from the southeast today, and thrust a spearhead within seven miles of the imperiled national bastion, a special government communique reported.

Nationalist headquarters at Suchow claimed a big victory at dawn after an all-night battle at Pantangchen, seven miles southeast of Suchow.

Despite the victory claim, the special communique distributed by the official Central News agency shaped up as an acknowledgment of a hitherto unreported communist threat to by-passed Suchow, 200 miles northeast of Nanking.

A communist flanking swing around Suchow already had cut the trunk railway south of the city, while one of the hottest sectors of the entire Suchow front was reported to be along the lateral railroad 25 to 50 miles east of the Kiangsu bastion.

In Washington, official quarters said today American marines at Tsingtao will fight Chinese communists only if the Reds attack them or threaten U. S. civilians.

This was disclosed as the navy ordered an additional 1,250 marines to the communist-surrounded port city to assist in the evacuation of an estimated 4,600 civilians in threatened areas. They have been warned to get out while escape routes remain open.

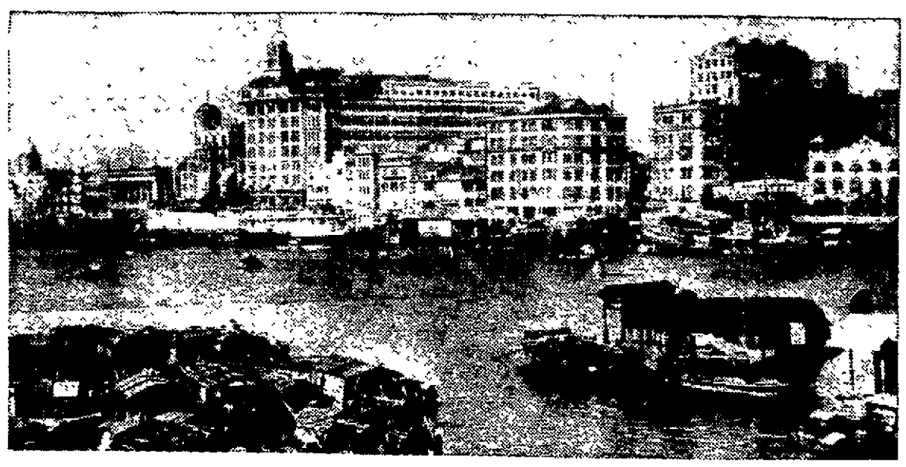
Officials emphasized that the marine reinforcements were ordered only to safeguard evacuees. There is no question of fighting, it was said, unless the marines are attacked or the civilians are threatened.

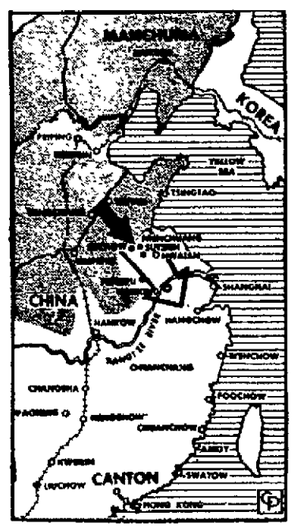
The 1,250 marines will reinforce 3,600 now on duty at Tsingtao under Vice Adm. Oscar C. Badger, commander of U. S. naval forces in the western Pacific.

The surface fleet there normally includes three cruisers, 12 destroyers, two transports and supporting aircraft. The carriers Tarawa and Princeton, two cruisers, and 12 destroyers recently arrived at the port city.

The marine reinforcements, the navy said, are scheduled to leave Guam next Tuesday aboard the transport Dayfield, which will be used to evacuate Americans upon its arrival at Tsingtao. It has a normal capacity of 1,500 persons.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek today sent a personal letter to President Harry S. Truman and well-informed sources said it probably contained an apeal for a statement of "sympathy, solidarity and support."





CHIANG MAY MOVE—Nationalist government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek may be moved from Nanking far south to Canton (above), according to reports, if the present Chinese communist battle for Suchow succeeds. Suchow has been cut off from Nanking by Red drive that crossed railroad.—(International)

Tygers Yell 'LSMFT' For Final Game

Slogan Aimed At Martins Ferry

That magical slogan LSMFT—Let's Smash Martin's Ferry, Too!—is really making the rounds today as Mansfield gets ready for another of its top-notch football conflicts.

LSMFT has appeared on handbills at Senior high school, in uptown business places and in some industrial plants. The slogan was conceived yesterday by an unknown Senior high student.

Senior high ends its 1948 football season tomorrow night at Martins Ferry. The Ferry team is undefeated and a favorite to hand Coach Augie Morningstar's Tygers their third defeat.

The LSMFT business is one phase of "Operation Purple Rider" which Mansfield football followers hope will pry Martins Ferry loose from its perfect record. Pep rallies have been the order at Senior high as the ardent Tyger students hope to duplicate the enthusiasm which helped carry Mansfield to its victory over Hamilton last week

A snake dance of students was scheduled around the practice gridiron at Arlin field this afternoon as the Tygers concluded drill chores for the season.

Tomorrow, a big "Friday Farewell" will come off starting at 8 a. m. with a pep rally at the school. Students then will form a giant gauntlet from the main entrance to the rear of the building where the Bengal players will board their special bus for Martins Ferry.

The players will go through this gauntlet at 8:30.

A caravan of cars will escort the special bus out-of-town. Tyger Booster club officials have asked any Mansfielders who can get away from work to participate in the parade.

Meanwhile, the booster club is completing plans for one of its best football sessions next Monday night at the Senior high school auditorium. It will be a complete musical program, featuring a medley of numbers from the outstanding half-time programs.

Theme songs of each of the seven programs will be presented in special arrangements by the Marching Tygers. The Tygerettes will go through some new dance routines on the stage. The finale will be a review of the Indian theme presented at the Whiting, Ind., tussle. Tyger club officials say that the Indian number will be a fine spectacle. The black-lighting equipment will be used in presenting the number.

J. Gilbert Baird, chairman of the half-time shows, will be in charge of Monday's session.

Some seats are still available on the Tyger club bus to Martins Ferry, R. M. Young announced today. Persons desiring to make the trip can call Young at 1953-6 before 9 p. m. Fare and game tickets total $5.35 The bus will leave at 2 p. m.

Charge Infants Sell For $2,000

CHICAGO, — (UP) — Two Chicago social workers charged today that illegitimate babies are being sold to childless couples in this area for $2,000 each. Anna Louise Buck, head of the family welfare division of the Illinois Welfare department's office here, and Marion Craine, welfare worker for the Council of Social Agencies, said child welfare organizations have known of the illegal operations for "five or six years."

Limiting Pickets

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Officials and CIO smelter workers at the struck American Zinc Oxide company plant in Columbus agreed to limit the number of pickets today to five at the main gate and two at each of the other gates.

Dedicate Dormitory

OXFORD — (AP) — Miami university's newest men's dormitory, Whitelaw Reid Hall, was dedicated yesterday and the grandson and namesake of the Miami alumnus for whom the building was named was the principal speaker. The dedication speaker was Whitelaw Reid, Editor of the New York Herald-Tribune.

Mrs. Watts Takes Stand

Poison Case Nearing End

CINCINNATI — (AP) — The first degree murder trial of Mrs. Mary Clay Watts, highlighted yesterday by the defendant's collapse in the witness chair, was expected to reach the jury today.

Mrs. Watts, a 43-year-old widow, broke down while describing the death scene of her only daughter, Barbara Ann, whom she is accused of fatally poisoning.

She spoke in a clear voice when Martin questioned her concerning the death of her husband, Willis Watts.

"Before my God," she declared, "I never gave Willis Watts anything but what was prescribed by a doctor."

In her testimony concerning her daughter, Mrs. Watts told of going to the child's room the morning of May 15.

"I felt her arm and it was cold," she said. "Her lips were blue . . . cold. I felt over her heart. It was warm. I screamed to have someone call the life squad."

Mrs. Watts' mother and father went to the child's room and returned saying: "Barbara is dead," the defendant said, her voice wavering.

"I said: 'Barbara is not dead.'

"I called for a lady living across the street . . . and Barbara was dead," Mrs. Watts sobbed. She went white, shuddered and then collapsed for a moment.

Welfare Unit Report Set

A list of recommendations prepared by a study committee of the Richland county Child Welfare council will be presented for approval or revision tonight to the council.

The meeting has been called for 7:30 p. m. in Room 202 of John Simpson junior high school.

Vernon Lawrence, president of the council, said the study committee, composed of 20 members, had prepared a three-page report to be presented to the council.

Following approval or revision, the recommendations will be passed on to the county commissioners. The recommendations are based on a study of a report made by the state welfare department after a survey of child welfare conditions in the county.

Snow, Cold In Offing

Balmy Weather Called Just 'Teaser'

Mansfielders enjoyed spring-like weather today, but the forecasters said it was just a "teaser."

While skies were blue and the sun smiled on Mansfield today, snow storms swept across the western states. The weathermen were undecided whether the storms would reach Ohio, but they agreed it will be dreary and colder tomorrow.

The mercury moved up to a cozy 53 at noon today. The forecaster in Cleveland said temperatures would remain at or near normal for the next 24 hours. The high was expected to be in the 60's this afternoon.

Frost coated the city area this morning as the temperature slid to 34 during the night.

As the effects of the western snowstorms reach Ohio tomorrow, strong winds will fan the state, the forecasters said.

Scattered showers are expected to fall tonight or tomorrow, and some forecasters said there was a possibility the rain may turn to snow by tomorrow night.

An "extensive" storm was reported in Kansas, and the federal weather bureau said snow had been sweeping across Colorado, Nebraska, and Wyoming since yesterday afternoon.

The weather bureau also said that a Pacific storm was churning eastward from south of the Aleutians, puffing winds of up to 50 miles an hour along a 1,200-mile front. Observers expected the storm to hit the Pacific northwest tonight with full force.

Police Nab 4 Escapers

MARIETTA — (AP) — Four fugitives from the Perry county jail were in custody today after an intense manhunt in the southeastern Ohio hill country.

The four Robert Romaine, 23, of Rendville (Perry county), Clyde Kelly, 26, of Vincent (Washington), William Goodfellow, 19, and Hugh Dobbins, 39, both of New Lexington—were taken unarmed last night by two sheriffs, their deputies and the state highway patrol.

The manhunt followed the escape from the Perry county jail where the four had been held on minor charges. They fled Tuesday while Sheriff Clair Butts was away hunting.

In their flight, they were identified as the men who kidnaped John Sidwell and his wife of Crooksville, took their car and left them unhurt in a Morgan county field.

Recount Recount

ZANESVILLE, — (AP) — The $25,000 bond issue for the Jefferson school district at Dresden did fail A recount of a recount yesterday confirmed the original count within a few votes.

GOVERNMENT FORMED

ATHENS —(INS)— A new Greek government was formed today under the leadership of Themistocles Sophoulis.

Pupils Still Angry, Stay Out on Strike

AKRON — (AP) — Rebellious students at Twinsburg high school say they'll stay away from class again today because they are still mad at their superintendent.

The latest thing they did not like, said spokesmen for the strikers, was an announcement on the radio last night by Superintendent Glen Powell. On the broadcast, he said they would return today.

"We resent his saying that," said one. "He had no right to speak for us."

Hospital Lets Kasenkina Go

NEW YORK —(AP)—Mrs. Oksana Stepanovna Kasenkina leaves Roosevelt hospital tomorrow, 99 days after her leap from a third-story window of the Russian consulate.

A hospital physician says the 53-year-old Russian schoolteacher, center of an international controversy that led to the severing of American-Soviet consular relations, has made a "wonderful recovery."

A writer, who edited her life story for newspaper syndication, said yesterday she plans to live with friends near New York City until she is completely well.

See Early Strike End

Ship Owners, Workers Talk

NEW YORK — (INS) — Prospects of early peace in the Atlantic coast longshoremen strike appeared today when federal conciliators reported both sides "very cooperative" in settlement talks.

The government mediators were scheduled to confer with officials of the striking AFL International Longshoremen's association and then meet with John V. Lyon, head of the employers' committee, of ship owners.

The two conferences were preparatory to the first joint meeting of the two sides tomorrow.

This meeting, the first since the strike began as a wildcat walkout nine days ago, was arranged by Mediator William N. Margolis within hours after he flew to New York from Washington.

Marshall plan shipments have been completely tied up by the strike at a rate of more than 2,000,000 tons a day.

More than 45,000 longshoremen were idle from Maine to Virginia, but a major break came when dockers at Halifax, N. S., agreed to handle any ships diverted from New York.

Vote Check Set Tonight

The Richland county board of elections tonight will make a recount of the ballots cast in the $17,000 bond issue proposal for a Washington township highway garage.

The board holds its monthly meeting at 7.30 p. m. in the board offices at the courthouse.

A group of Washington township citizens headed by Doyle Donough asked for the recount, which will cost $20, for the two precincts. However, if the recount shows the vote tabulators made an error, the money will be refunded.

A shift of one vote from the "against" to the "for" column would have passed the bond issue proposal. The vote was 387 for to 209 against, or 64.93 per cent, whereas a 65 per cent majority is required for passage.

FEAR 500 DROWN

CALCUTTA —(INS)— Some 500 persons were feared drowned today when a loaded steamer capsized in the Ganges river near Patna, Bihar Province, India.

Gets Turkey, But Dinner Is Delayed

CLEVELAND — (UP)— Robert Brown of Leipsic, O., stopped his truck, carrying 350 live turkeys to market, at a traffic light today, but when he drove on there were only 349.

He heard something snap in the back of the truck as he waited for the light to change and rushed back just in time to see a man jump into a car with a turkey.

Brown got the license number of the car and detectives, tracing the number, arrested Theodore Morrison, 21, at his home just as he was dressing a turkey. Morrison, in jail, swore that the turkey flew right into his arms.

GOP Spends $4,129 In Campaign

McFarland, 'Others' Contribute Half

The Richland county Republican executive committee spent $4,129 in the election campaign, a report filed with the county board of elections showed today.

This contrasted sharply with the previous report of the Democrats who listed expenses of $1,172 and contributions of $1,427.

The GOP committee reported a bank balance of $31. Contributions were listed at $3,998. However, at the start of the campaign the committee had had $162 to add to the contributions.

Biggest contribution listed was that of Earl A. McFarland "and others," which totaled $2,118—or more than half the GOP expenditures. McFarland refused to reveal who the "others" were.

Other contributions of $50 or over includes those of R. B. Putnam, $50; J. V. Will, $150; Judge Stuart H. Cramer, $50; William Weldon, $50; Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch, $50; State Senator Ralph Winter, $50; Frank Bissman, $50.

W. J. Johns, $50; H. E. Hawley, $50; Women's Republican club, $50; Charles Fuchs, $50; S. A. Wentz, $60; Paul Eliot, $50.

Most of the expenditures went for advertising. Another large expense item was the major Republican rally in Mansfield at which Speaker of the House Joseph W. Martin spoke.

Paul J. Martin of the initiating committee of a salary ordinance for police and firemen, filed a report listing expenditures of $388 and contributions of $395. A balance of $7 is to go into the police and firemens recreation fund.

The statement shows that each policeman and fireman contributed $5 to the fund. Most of the expenditures were for advertising and attorney's fees of $200.

Young Matron Attacked By Enraged Bull

CANTON, — (INS) — Mrs. Dorothy Young, 28, was confined to Aultman hospital today after coming off second best in an argument with an enraged bull.

The bull knocked down Mrs. Young 10 times and mauled her considerably yesterday on her farm a mile east of nearby Hartville before she managed to escape.

She prevented serious enjury by grasping a ring in the animal's nose. However, she received several broken ribs and numerous cuts and abrasions.

SEE POSSIBLE PURGE

MADRID —(INS)— Informed Madrid sources predicted today that Generalissimo Franco may shortly carry out a drastic purge of the Falange party.

Increased $1 Per Thousand

School, TB Bonds Up Cost

Mansfield's tax rate will be $21 per $1,000 property valuation in 1949, an increase of $1 per thousand, County Auditor Norman L. Wolfe said today. The city's new rate is the highest in 15 years. It was $15 in 1938.

Forty-six of the 47 taxing districts in Richland county will pay more taxes under the new rates announced by the auditor. Only the Savannah school district in Butler township will pay less.

The county tuberculosis sanatorium bonds, costing 80 cents annually per $1,000 valuation, and the school bonds voted in 1945, at 20 cents per thousand, account for the dollar increase in the Mansfield rate.

City property owners won't begin paying for the $2,250,000 worth of school bonds voted Nov. 2 until 1950.

Every county district will help pay for the $700,000 TB sanatorium bond issue in an 80-cents-per-thousand increase and a higher rate for county operating purposes. The rate for county purposes jumped from $2.50 to $3.30 per thousand.

RATE DROPS

Rate in the Savannah school district dropped from $18.90 to $18.70 because of cuts in requirements for school and township bonds.

South Boulevards, now part of Mansfield, will have the same rate as the city, $21. The village rate last year was $20.

The breakdown for the $21 Mansfield tax rate follows: county, $8.30; schools, $18.70; township, 18 cents, and Mansfield city, $5.87.

The Shelby rate will jump from $22 to $23.60. The increase is accounted for by the TB bonds and a one-mill city operating levy, voted in the Nov. 2 election.

Tax requirements on school bond issues were reduced by 20 cents per $1,000. The Shelby breakdown follows: county, $3.30; schools, $14.10; township, 20 cents, and Shelby city, $6.

In the following districts the tax rate was increased in the amount required for the TB bond issue. The tax rates this year compared with the new rates follow:

Bloominggrove township, (Shiloh school district), $17.20 to $18; Cass township, $16.20 to $17; Jefferson township, (Bellville school district), $17 to $17.80; Bellville village, $18.40 to $19.20; Monroe township, $16.20 to $17; Lucas village, $21 to $21.80; Madison township, $16 to $16.80; Perry township (Bellville school dis-

Adopt Plan, U. N. Urged

PARIS — (AP) — Britain asked the United Nations today to adopt Count Folke Bernadoote's plan to end the Palestine war.

Hector McNeil, Britain's chief delegate, told the 58-nation Political committee he would submit a resolution shortly along the lines of the slain mediator's recommendations. He urged the assembly to support it.

The endorsement of the plan was the first in the committee by any major U. N. member. The debate lasted only an hour.

While the Political committee worked slowly on the Palestine case, the Genreal assembly went into the first of three plenary sessions scheduled for today.

The assembly had before it a Russian proposal for a one-third reduction in land, sea and air forces of the big five powers and prohibition of atomic weapons.

Woman Runs Crime School

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., — (UP)— A 50-year-old housewife was held today on a charge of running a "crime school" and using two girls, 11 and 14 years old, as "bait" to get students.

Police said the school was responsible for one armed robbery and another attempt last week.

Three youths arrested for the robberies told police that Mrs. Florence Moomaw, 50, planned their "jobs" for them. Detectives said the woman had enticed the youths to her home several weeks ago, using the two pretty young girls as a lure.

Objectionable Comic Books Are Parents' Problem, Forum Holds

The problem of objectionable comic books was thrown squarely in the laps of individual parents at a meeting of Mansfield mothers held at Rebecca Grubaugh school yesterday.

Seventy mothers heard a panel of four speakers discuss the problem. Those who spoke at the meeting were Arthur L. Glattke, superintendent of the Ohio State reformatory; Floyd Dent, area scout commissioner; Rev. John G. Gensel, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and Rev. David N. Roller, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Rev. Roller told the group, "I am absolutely opposed to vigilante methods and pressure groups." He said that something must be done, but in his opinion, pressure groups are not the answer.

Dent told the mothers that they should discuss the problem with their children at home. He said that youngsters would help to solve the problem if they are given the opportunity. He warned the parents not to forbid the reading of certain comic books without giving the children an explanation.

He put the problem squarely before the group when he asked, "How many of us know what we're doing?" After only a few mothers admitted that they could give the titles of at least three comic books, Dent asked them how they could know whether the comics were good or bad. He suggested that parents read comic books themselves before making decisions for their children.

Rev. Gensel reminded the parents that they have the buying power for the family. If comic books are sold, it is because adults like and buy them, he added. He said that the responsibility rests with the parents, since it is the adults who set the policy of a town. He said that adventure comics are an outlet for natural impulses which must be restrained, but that young children lack the necessary restraint.

He said that parents should see to it that their children are not exposed to certain comics until they have been taught discrimination.

Glattke opened the discussion with facts about the widespread reading of comics. He said that a recent survey had showed that crime, sex, anti-social behavior, sadistic acts, and un-Americanism were depicted in certain comic books and some newspaper comic strips. He read several newspaper clippings pointing out a possible connection between juvenile crime and reading of objectionable comic books.

Rev. Roller also told the group that an association of comic magazine publishers has recently been formed to combat the problem. The association has set up a code providing for wholesome entertainment and education in comic books and banning anything which might lower the moral code of the readers. He suggested that parents write to the association commending their action.

He said that parents must go to the source of the trouble, the publishers of comic books.

He pointed out that local dealers often have to buy magazines on a contract basis. Under this method, they are forced to take certain comic books in order to get other comic books and magazines for sale

Jesse Clark, principal of Rebecca Gruhaugh, opened the meeting and introduced the speakers.

Boost In Coal Price Hikes Power Rate

City Paying $478 More Per Month

Increase Met By Appropriation

The high cost of living is nibbling away at the city treasury.

The explanation of an appropriation of $15,000 approved this week by city council to supplement the fund to pay for water department electric power made this fact evident.

In January of 1947 the city wrote a five-year contract with the Ohio Public service company, setting consumption rates for power at eight-tenths of a cent per kilowatt hour.

The contract included a clause which stipulated that for every increase of 10 cents in the cost of coal per ton (the Jan. 1947 price was $4 per ton), the cost of a kilowatt hour was to be hiked seventy-five one thousandths of a cent.

Since that time, coal has climbed to $6.14 a ton, raising the cost of a kilowatt hour to slightly less than a cent, or .95 cents.

In other words, for the 560,641 kilowatt hours used by the water department in September, the city paid $5,369.14 at the rate based on coal at $6.14 a ton.

If coal prices had not risen, but remained at the $5 level in effect when the contract was written, the electric bill would have been based on a rate of eight-tenths of a cent per kilowatt hour, or a total cost of $4,885.13.

Therefore, because of the increase in the price of coal, the water department monthly electric bill was upped by $478.01. On the average, the annual increase is $5,736.

That the supplemental appropriation exceeded this figure is explained by the fact that more power was used this year than was anticipated the first of the year when the annual appropriation bill was drawn up.

Seeks Nurse Applicants

Dr. Harry Wain, city-county health commissioner, today issued a call for applicants for the post of nurse in the health department.

There is one vacancy in the staff, created by the recent resignation of Miss Betty Pfifer of Ashland. The present staff is composed of seven nurses and one supervisor. Eight nurses are authorized.

Dr. Wain said the department needs a nurse for general public health work in the county. Qualified persons were urged by the health commissioner to apply at the health department offices on the third floor of the city building.

Rent Battle Reaches End

CLEVELAND—(AP)—Employes in Ohio Department of Welfare's offices could confidently switch on the lights at the Public Square building today. The tiff over the rent has been settled.

Harry M. McMullin, manager of the building, turned off the lights and banned elevator services to state employes because, he said, the department had not paid its rent for two months.

Yesterday, after getting together with Paul D. Zimmer, state comptroller for the aid of the aged division, he announced the difficulty had been straightened out.

Big 9 Basketball Sked Opens Dec. 1

CHICAGO —(AP)— Western conference basketball teams will play 12 league games each in addition to meeting 40 outside opponents in the 1948-49 campaign. The season opens Dec. 1 and will close March 7.

Under the old rules Big Nine teams could play only 20 games, but this recently was changed to provide a 22-game program. Illinois, Indiana and Purdue have booked full 22-game cards, while Minnesota has booked 21. Northwestern and Wisconsin have arranged to play 21. Iowa and Michigan have 20 engagements and Ohio State 19.

Senior High Gridders Practice Last Time

Tygers Play Tomorrow at Rider Town

Mansfield Senior high school footballers were scheduled to go through their final practice of the season today at Arlin field.

Coach Augie Morningstar had only a light drill scheduled since the Tygers conclude their 1948 season tomorrow at Martins Ferry. Tyger students were all set to help things along today with a snake dance around the drill field.

Of the regular Bengal cast, only A. C. Jenkins is an unknown quantitay. Jenkins was pretty well "beat up" last week when Mansfield defeated Hamilton and has worked very little this week. He was in uniform yesterday but did nothing except limber up.

OSBUN IN LINE

If Jenkins is unable to go, Hammerin' Harry Osbun, the only two-time letter winner on the squad, will get the offensive fullback role. Osbun has been used almost exclusively on defense this season. Two years ago at Ferry, Osbun put on a great personal show and scored twice on runs of one and 40 yards as the Bengals triumphed, 32 to 14.

Loss of Jenkins would hamper the Bengals, however. The 175-pound junior fullback is the leading Senior high ground-gainer. In nine games he has romped to 847 yards on 103 carries. That's an average of 8.2 a carry. Jenkins has scored nine times, only two less than Capt. Joe Miller.

RUGGED FORWARDS

Senior high easily has one of Ohio's better ground offensives. But tomorrow the Tygers will run into the Buckeye state's toughest forward wall. The Ferry crew has given up only three TD's in winning eight and tying one.

Jenkins, Miller, Little Tommy Tucker and Lou Gregorio all sport better than an eight yards a try average. Miller is the No. 2 man in total yardage with 667, while Tucker has 475 and Gregorio 335.

★

The squad will be feted at the Evergreen cafeteria after today's practice and then will attend the Ohio theater tonight. The Tygers leave at 9 a. m. tomorrow for Martins Ferry.

New York Rens Smash City All-Star Quintet, 50-34

The New York Rens waltzed to a 50-34 decision over the City league All-Stars before a disappointing turnout last night at Senior high gym.

The outcome of the game was never in doubt as the New Yorkers concentrated on a ball-handling exhibition and scored only when they felt like it.

Former Senior high star Nick Gagich, Dick Casad and Bob Nikolaus were the only All-Stars to carry the fight to the towering Rens. Nikolaus and Gagich led the scoring with nine points while Casad had seven.

Duke Cumberland, the near-bald pivot man of the Rens, racked up 16.

The preliminary game provided far more thrills for the fans as Ashland Myers Pump ran over Komito's by a 68-38 count. The Myers team, Ashland's finest, presented a fast-breaking offense which Komito's could not solve.

Burns collected 15 points for Ashland to lead in scoring while Stretch Regula paced Komito's with 12.

Wisler Picked As '49 Galion Grid Captain

GALION—Right halfback Biss Wisler will lead the Galion football team in 1949, as the result of an election held by his teammates. The announcement was made at the annual football banquet at the Junior high school.

Ed Sherman, headfootball coach at Muskingum college, was the principal speaker at the fete and praised the spirit and the stick-to-itiveness of the winless Tigers.

Billy Smith Replaces Kid on Joe Louis Card

CINCINNATI — (INS) — A last-minute substitution for the Alabama Kid against Joe Louis in Cincinnati Nov. 29 was made today.

The change in plans calls for Billy Smith of Oakland, Cal., to run through a four-round bout as part of the world heavyweight champion's exhibition tour.

4 Bucyrus Gridders On Squad

SHELBY — Four Bucyrus men were named to the All-Northern Ohio league football team today. Bucyrus won the league title with six wins and one tie.

Five other players on the league championship team made the second and third teams, leaving only two of the starting eleven off the honor squad.

Bill Kibler, the loop's leading scorer was named honorary captain while teammates Bob Dutcher, fullback; Walter Light, right end and Bill Huggins, center, joined him on the first team. Other selections were: M. L. Bruckner, Bellevue, left end; Coe, Bellevue, and Christine, Crestline, at the tackles; Jimmy Johnson, Crestline, and Beidler, Upper Sandusky at guards; McKiuley, Norwalk, quarterback; and John Mason, Upper Sandusky at full. Mason was named the outstanding back of the circuit.

NINE ARE SENIORS

All the first team selections are seniors with the exception of Beidler and McKinley. All except Beidler and Light are three-year lettermen.

Bruckner of Bellevue was voted the outstanding linemen.

Second team selections were: Johns, Bucyrus, and Lundy, Upper Sandusky at ends: Phillips, Upper Sandusky, and Weithman, Bucyrus, tackles; Lewellyen, Norwalk, and Bell, Shelby, guards; Lucas, Upper, center; Ball, Bucyrus, quarterback; Coll, Norwalk, and Soldano, Bellevue, halfbacks; and Nap Morton, Crestline, fullback.

Third team selections: Stump, Crestline, and Cronenwett, Shelby, ends; Scheerer, Shelby, and Samaha, Norwalk, tackles; Teynor, Bucyrus, and Caudillo, Galion, guards: Sommers, Norwalk, center; Smalley, Upper Sandusky, quarterback; Stecher, Upper Sandusky, and Dick Kibler, Bucyrus, halfbacks; Meagrow, Norwalk, fullback.

Bill Fischer Top Lineman

SOUTH BEND, Ind. — (AP) — Capt. Bill Fischer, Notre Dame guard, played bruising football for 58 minutes against Northwestern last week and through effectiveness won him the lineman of the week honor in the current Associated Press poll.

The 21-year-old senior from Chicago is the first guard to win an award this season.

Fischer never let up. Late in the game he spilled Don Burson, Northwestern quarterback for a 26-yard loss as the Wildcat quarterback went back to pass. On the play Burson fumbled and Fischer recovered.

The former Lane Tech (Chicago) high school star suffered a dislocated elbow against Michigan State in the third game of the season. Trainers expected he would be on the bench at least three weeks.

He missed the Nebraska game the following week, but insisted on playing with his arm in a cast the following Saturday against Iowa.

Cleveland Team Gets Bowl Bid

CLEVELAND —(INS)— Cleveland will have at least one representative in a Bowl game this year.

The Avenue Sports Bearcats, defending champions in the Municipal 150-pound football league, and leaders of the western division race this season, have accepted an offer to participate in the Porridge bowl game in Mount Lebanon, Pa., Thanksgiving day.

Mansfield Bowling Army Kayoes Pins; Lynch and Pugh Take Single Laurels

The first touches of winter weather have evidently given the old mid-season touch to Mansfield's army of bowlers as scores being turned in are soaring constantly upward.

The City A league had one of its hotter sessions last night as no fewer than eight men reached the lofty 600 series perch. Three of them were on the Bissman five and helped advance their team to within one game of the top.

Bob Lynch led the honor roll parade with a 222-235-181—638. Other Bissman men in the top class were Floyd Messmore, 205-223-192—626, and John Leppo, 257-163-191—611. Phil Warga's 520 and Art Hilborn's 554 rounded out the team score to a 1037-946-960—2943.

High single game was Lloyd Pugh's 275 middle effort which followed an unusually poor 139. Pugh finished up with a 211 to Munyon scattered the maples for 220-168-245—633, while Paul Warick and Fritz Vogel rounded out the select group with a pair of 603's.

League-leading Ace Cabs fell twice before Max Diner while Bissman's moved to within one game of the top with a two for three victory over Mid Ohio. Deschner Cab's, far down in stay right with the leaders with 625. Bob Hilborn was runner-up with 191-218-225—634. Hal Le-eighth place, made the biggest jump as they swept three games from Dr. Pepper, dropping the latter from second to fifth.

Sis DeWeese led the Dominion Women with a 178-154-149—481 score. Audrey Campbell was runner-up with 439 while Evelyn Phillips had 407, and Irma Kunz, 403.

★

Paul Zartman jr. had a 479 in the Isaly's league while Jack Henry had 465 and Phil Deschner, 454.

★

Two leagues were in operation at Richland, the Richland Ladies and St. Peter's Alumni. Peg Shoup led the Richland Ladies with 155-135-197—487, while Martha Dye had 467 and Elnora Kanz, 464. Ginny Rhoads marked up 454 and Ruth Southworth, 453.

★

Don Smith set the pace for the St. Peter's Alumni with a 161-134-199—494. R. Schnug was runner-up with 467 while R. Tipul had 444 and T. Tipul, 431.

Alumni Quint Uses Rally To Top Lexington

LEXINGTON—A fourth quarter rally by an alumni team handed Lexington high school its first defeat of the basketball season here last night, 40-38.

Twelve men broke into the lineup for the alumni and ten of them entered the scoring column. Dick Roberts led the parade with eight points while Dick Cline of the high school popped in 11 and Dick Dill ten.

The alumni trailed 35-22 going into the last quarter but failed to stand the pace of their more experienced opponents.

Lexington's game scheduled tomorrow night at Tiro has been shifted to Lexington because of repair work being done on the Tiro gym.

Jimmy Bivins 'Wins' Match From Champ

By LARRY SMITH

CLEVELAND —(AP)— Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis labels Jimmy Bivins the toughest opponent he has faced so far on his exhibition tour.

"I don't know why he shouldn't be a contender if he gets serious about his training," Louis said in his dressing room last night after engaging in a six-round no-decision affair with the Cleveland Negro.

"He threw two good right-hand punches and I knew I was hit, but they weren't hard enough to bother me," the champion added. "Anyone who fights him has to be very careful."

With both fighters using 12-ounce gloves instead of the regulation eight, Bivins opened a cut above Louis' left eye in the second round. Joe received the wound originally Nov. 8 when he accidentally bumped heads with Johnny Shkor in an exhibition at Boston.

KEEPS IN CHECK

Bivins did most of the leading during the exhibition while Louis opened up only sporadically.

The champion jabbed most of the time and seemed content to take it easy, but opened up suddenly at one point in the fifth and drove Bivins to cover with a flurry of rights and lefts.

Although the exhibition was a no-decision affair, Matchmaker Larry Atkins conducted a poll among newsmen at ringside and reported the writers favored Bivins by a 9-to-5 vote.

However, most of the 10,086 customers seemed to sense that Louis could have opened up on Bivins at any time.

Want Defiance Out of League

DEFIANCE — (INS) — Defiance high school officials reported today that petitions are being circulated in an effort to oust Defiance from the Northwest Ohio Athletic league.

The reports were that the petitions were out in Wauseon, Montpelier and Bryan. They contend that Defiance is "considerably larger than any of the other schools in the league." Defiance has carried off most of the championships in football and basketball in the past.

The question probably will be formally presented at a meeting of league officials in Wauseon next Monday night.

Bill Terry May Work With Cincy In Spring

CINCINNATI—(INS)—Warren C. Giles, president of the Cincinnati Reds today confirmed a report that Bill Terry is considering a return to baseball.

Giles said that the former New York Giant manager may assist Bucky Walters during the 1949 spring training season.

Columbus Ready For Michigan

By JOHN FRYE

COLUMBUS — (AP) — They are giving Wesley E. Fesler gifts already and the Michigan game isn't played until Saturday.

The coach of the Ohio State university football team, an obscure bunch somewhere in the midwest last year, but a mighty band of toad-trompers this year, got an outboard motor boat last night.

It was for free and in appreciation of. The Ohio State Journal Quarterback club gave it to him because he likes to fish and not because he may have to cross the Olentangy river fast ahead of the wolves about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

That's when the Michiganders are supposed to wind up somewhere between seven and 14 points ahead of the Buckeyes—according to the book.

Around here they sing, "We don't give a damn for the whole state of Michigan."

As further evidence of the growing state of mental unbalance in a town where presidential booms have been nursed, and Abraham Lincoln once spoke, hotels and restaurants are beginning to nail things down.

Cops are testing their reflexes to sound the riot call when they hear the sound of tramping feet that might be bringing the goal posts down High street.

The university campus streets, state property and thus belonging in some measure to the taxpayers, are being closed at 7 a. m. Saturday to all but people with provable business there. This is to prevent congestion.

The papers are writing editorials about the game and putting them in the space usually given to explaining what is going on in Washington.

Folks with the most casual connection with the university are getting long distance calls from distant relatives and people they owe money to, just asking for a couple of tickets. It can be done, but it makes scalpers happy.

★

As for the team itself, the boys themselves are making the least news.

Fesler is keeping them wrapped in straw like a bunch of champagne bottles so they won't hurt themselves between now and Saturday.

They have light drills, mostly on pass defense and offense.

Fesler keeps a deer rifle to shoot down any enthusiastic member of the freshman team who tackles a varsity back.

43 Candidates Try For Madison Squad; Graduation Took All 1947-48 Regulars

By CHARLEY STINE

Strength in numbers must make up for lack of experience if the 1948-49 edition of the Madison basketball team is to be a worthy successor to the Rams' district champion quintet of last year.

Forty-three boys are now competing for places on the Madison squad and not a single one is a previous letter-winner. All regulars from Jeff DeHaven's great club of last year have been graduated.

Expected to form the nucleus of the outfit are seven boys who saw action on the reserve team and as varsity substitutes. They include Ray "Dutch" Bader, Jim Brightbill, Ed Chelski, Larry Secrist, Gene Riblet, Russell Glenn, and Joe Distl. Distl saw the most varsity service and was the leading scorer among the returning group.

Blaine Dowler, the new Ram cage coach greeted the first group of candidates last Thursday but sixteen football-basketball players did not report until Tuesday. Practice sessions are being held after school and on Saturday mornings.

Dowler plans to divide the squad, taking what appears to be the top 15 himself and letting reserve coach Ennis Walker have the rest.

Dowler will then be able to devote more time to selecting a starting five from among the smaller group.

An open date on the originally announced Ram schedule has been filled, Dowler said, bringing the total number of games to 20. Madison will travel to Kenton, January 21.

No other games will be added, the coach said, unless an opportunity to get into a holiday basketball carnival presents itself. At present, Dowler said he had no idea what such carnival the Rams might enter but indicated that he would like to give the team the experience of playing under tournament conditions.

Other squad members are. Dick Backensto, Kenny Woerth, Dick Fox, Marty Klepp, Willie Stevens, Chester Sprague, Roger Forsythe, Jim McMillan, Jack Bosh, Bill Briggs, Ray Enderle, Larry Lynn, Dave Davies, Charles Frye, Jake Radio, Eugene Yahn, Terry McKown, Leland Strang, Dean Stoffe, Ken Rice, Rolland Constance, Edward Potter, Bill Mottayave, G. McKown, Tom Kudika, Wayne Fluke, Ward Patterson, Bill Brown, Dick Hasenzahl, and Dave Tucker.

PICADOR — Blonde Dorothy Birk, Chicago art student, went to study at Mexico's Esquala university. An excellent horsewoman, she was invited to participate in a bull fight as a picador. She so impressed officials that she has become one of the favorites in Mexican rings.

Cleveland Barons Get Win Over Springfield

(By International News Service)

The Cleveland Barons, defending champions of the American Hockey league, were within one step of emerging from the Western division cellar today

A 4-2 Baron victory over Springfield and Indianapolis' 8-3 loss to Buffalo last night enabled the Clevelanders to climb to just one point back of Indianapolis.

ORDINANCE NO. 48-339

By Mr. Kyle:

To appropriate property for storm water sewer purposes.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MANSFIELD, STATE OF OHIO, TWO-THIRDS OF ALL MEMBERS ELECTED THERETO CONCURRING:

Section 1. That the following described property be, and the same is hereby appropriated, to public use for the construction, operation, maintenance, repair and inspection of a storm water sewer of approximately 42 inches in diameter, across a part of Lot No. 7869 in the City of Mansfield, Ohio, as hereinafter described, to-wit:

A strip off of the south side of Lot No. 7869, being 9 ft. in width north and south and extending from the west boundary line to the east boundary line of said lot, approximately 198 feet; also the right to use for ingress and egress and handling material and operating machinery for said construction, any part of said lot not covered by buildings during the construction of said storm water sewer only; also the right, after construction has been completed to enter upon said 9 ft. strip when and if necessary for the purpose of repairing said storm water sewer, but not so as to interfere otherwise with the use of the surface of said 9 ft. strip by the owner of the fee.

Section 2. That the Solicitor be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to have a jury impaneled to make inquiry into and assess the compensation to be paid for such property.

Section 3. That the costs and expenses of said appropriation is to be paid out of the Storm-Water Sewer Fund, and the City Auditor is hereby authorized to draw his warrant upon the City Treasurer for the payment of same upon properly endorsed vouchers therefor.

Section 4. That this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after the earliest time allowed by law.

Passed November 15th, 1948.
Signed: PAUL W. BUSH,

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

A. F. of L. Invites Labor Merger Into National Group

CIO Makes No Answer To Proposal

Union Extends Unity Offer

CINCINNATI —(U.P.)— The American Federation of Labor turned its eyes toward Portland, Ore., today for CIO reaction to a new AFL invitation to merge all labor unions into one national organization.

In a surprise move, the 700 delegates to the AFL's 67th annual convention meeting in Cleveland extended a new invitation for unity to the CIO and by inference, to John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

They unanimously adopted a resolution instructing the executive committee to "pursue with new vigor its efforts to bring about unity between all bona fide labor unions in our nation."

The CIO's executive committee is now meeting in Portland, where the CIO national convention begins Monday.

The invitation bombshelled into a jampacked AFL day which saw the convention also vote unanimously to continue its political arm, labor's League for Political Education, "on a permanent basis and on a national and state and local level."

It is to be financed by an assessment against union locals of ten cents per member.

"NO COMMENT"

Also approved was an increase in the salary of President William Green from $20,000 to $25,000 and of Secretary-Treasurer George Meany from $18,000 to $23,000.

In Portland, Ore., CIO President Philip Murray had "no comment" on the AFL proposal for reunion of all labor organizations under one banner.

The CIO leader's refusal to discuss the offer came when he was shown an International News Service dispatch telling of the AFL bid as he left a meeting of the CIO executive board.

Murray said the board meeting, being held prior to the opening of the union's national convention in Portland next Monday, was given over to appointing committees and like matters.

Other members of the board told newsmen Murray delivered the most scathing attack on communism he ever has made. They said he used such words as "filthy" and "vicious" to describe communists in the labor movement.

They also quoted him as saying all CIO union leaders must choose between loyalty to the CIO and loyalty to Russian foreign policy.

At the same time Murray expressed hope the Pacific coast maritime strike, more than two months old, may be settled this week.

Discuss Articles Of War Tonight

The new articles of war will be discussed at a training assembly for the Organized Reserve corps for Richland, Holmes, and Ashland counties tonight. The meeting will be held at the American Legion home at 7:30 p. m.

All reservists and former members of the armed forces are invited to be present.

Wolfe said that the office force at present is computing the amount of taxes owed by individual property owners and that the job should be completed by Jan. 1.

The duplicates are then delivered to the treasurer's office which will prepare the tax statements for distribution to property owners.

Reach 90% Agreement

FRANKFURT— (U.P.) —Gen. Lucius D. Clay said yesterday that American, British and French military governors now have reached a 90 per cent agreement on an occupation statute for western Germany.

The U. S. military governor said "very many disagreements" had been eliminated in a six-hour session of the governors behind closed doors.

The general refused to reveal any details of the statute that will divide rule of western Germany between a new government and the occupation powers. But he said the governors had agreed on many of the features of the three-power control organ that will supervise the west German government.

"I am well pleased," Clay commented. He said the respective governments would be consulted on points of disagreement before the Nov. 30 meeting of the governors.

U. S. Vessel Seized

NEW YORK—(AP)— The state department today was investigating the reported seizure of an American freighter at Port Said, Egypt. Egyptian authorities were said to be attempting to confiscate the cargo of the 10,000-ton vessel, the Flying Trader, on the theory it was bound for Israel.

ECA Seen Best Hope For Peace

Raises 'Europe's Living Standards

CINCINNATI— (U.P.) —Recovery Chief Paul G. Hoffman said yesterday that Europe's new spirit of cooperation resulting directly from the Marshall plan "offers us our best hope for peace."

The Economic Cooperation administrator told the American Federation of Labor convention that it is "shareholders in every meaning of the word" in the fight to put Europe back on its economic feet.

ECA's goal over its projected four-year life span is to give the average European worker a one-third increase in his annual income, that is to raise per capita income from $320 a year to $500, Hoffman said.

"This income is still a depression figure for America, but it means solvency and a reasonably sound economy in Europe," he added.

Hoffman said that ECA does not expect to achieve the American standard of living for western Europe by 1952, nor does it hope by then to persuade the recovery nations to adopt a common language, common monetary system or to eliminate national frontiers.

"We are not chasing rainbows" he said. "But if you judge the success of the Marshall plan by whether Europe can, within four years, become reasonably prosperous within European standards, the answer is yet, it can be done."

"If ECA succeeds," Hoffman said, "it must have the cooperation of American workers and of European workers. If the workers lose faith in the program because they do not understand it, they have it within their power to undermine it.

Cavallaro Here Friday

Carmen Cavallaro and his orchestra will give four performances at the Madison theater tomorrow. Cavallaro, known as the "poet of the piano" will appear on the stage at 2:30, 5, 7:30, and 10 p. m.

A movie, "The Return of the Whistler," will be shown with the stage show.

The shows will be continuous and regular admission will be charged until 5 p. m.

Cavallaro's appearance here will be the first stage show at the theater since Vaughan Monroe was in Mansfield last spring.

It will be the first time in several years that the theater has presented a film with a stage show.

Cavallaro, who organized his own orchestra in 1939, has made numerous personal appearances, appeared in four motion pictures, and on a number of radio programs.

His recording of Chopin's "Polonaise" sold 1,000,000 records.

Capacity Crowd Sees Final Performance of 'Suspect'

By EILEEN DEWHURST

A capacity crowd applauded the final performance of "Suspect" presented by the Community play directed by Herbert H. Schettler.

Corrine Schettler turned in an other outstanding performance as the mentally unbalanced Mrs. Smith. Once again Marion Byers drew applause as the Scotch maid, Goudie MacIntyre.

The cast was called back for several curtain calls at the close of the performance.

As the audience left the auditorium they cast their ballots for the outstanding Community Player of the year. The player receiving the most votes during the season will receive the Helen Bacon award, a silver bowl which will be presented for the first time this year. The award is the first of its kind ever to be presented in Mansfield amatuer theatrical circles.

The next production of the Community Players will be "Suds in Your Eye," a comedy directed by Burns Kattenburg. It will be given Feb. 8 and 9 in John Simpson auditorium.

Hunter Charged

NORTH BAY, Ont.—(AP)—John Adams of Struthers, O., will be given a preliminary hearing here Monday on a manslaughter charge growing out of the fatal shooting of Delmar Relya, also of Struthers. Relya was killed near here Nov. 11 while hunting deer.

Sex Fiend Kills Woman

Aged Cleveland Matron Strangled

CLEVELAND — (U.P.) — The 62-year-old mother of two doctors was raped and strangled with a necktie within a few feet of her home in exclusive Shaker Heights early yesterday, Coroner Samuel R. Gerber ruled.

Police throughout the greater Cleveland area were seeking a tall, shabbily dressed man about 35 who apparently tried to get aid for his dying victim, Shaker Police Chief Bert Tilson said.

Although the primary cause of death for Mrs. Helen Takacy was strangulation, Gerber said, the victim also may have suffered a heart attack during the struggle.

Tilson said Mrs. Takacy was attacked in a field, strangled with a knotted necktie and then carried across the street and placed upon the lawn of the home of Mrs. Ruth Marks.

In the field, police found undergarments of Mrs. Takacy, a dental plate and a man's necktie. The killer hurled an empty milk crate through Mrs. Marks' window before fleeing.

HUNTER KILLED

LANCASTER — (AP) — William C. England, 32, became Ohio's seventh hunting fatality yesterday. He was killed on a farm six miles north of here when his shotgun caught on a fence and went off.

1 of 2 Girl Delinquents Gets Release

Father To Send Her To School

BUCYRUS — Probate Judge Constance R. Keller announced today that one of two Bucyrus teen-aged girls involved in a delinquency case here, has been released from Crawford county jail here and placed in the temporary custody of her father.

The girl, 17, will be entered in the Kate Waller Barrett Training school in Akron. The 13-year-old girl, arrested in the same case, is being held in the jail until a home placement can be made, Judge Keller said.

Two Bucyrus men, James H. York and John B. Radcliff, both 25, are being held in county jail on charges of contributing to the delinquency of the two girls.

Two Given Appointments

Service - Safety Director Earl T. Garrison yesterday announced that Miss Ruth Craig and Mrs. Louise Fleck have been given probational appointments as policewoman and police clerk-stenographer respectively

The pair recently took civil service examinations for the posts and were certified to the service director by the civil service commission. Both Miss Craig and Mrs. Fleck, have been working for the city on provisional appointments.

If their work is satisfactory, their appointments will be made permanent in 90 days. After that period they cannot be dismissed without a civil service hearing.

New Car Kills 700-Pound Steer

BUCYRUS — A new Cadillac sedan, owned and driven by James S. Michael, Bucyrus, was damaged badly when it struck and killed a 700-pound steer, owned by H. W. Kocher of west of Galion, yesterday.

The accident occurred on Route 19 about three miles west of Galion. Michael was unhurt.

Boys' State Better Than Study In Classroom, Youths Report

Sixteen Mansfield area youths who attended Boy's State at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, last June, were feted last night at the McVey American Legion Post.

Picked on the basis of their scholastic records and deportment, the boys were sponsored by various groups in Mansfield for their 10-day experiment in self-government.

The boys were given a chance to tell of their experiences as part of the miniature state government.

Most of them said last night they learned more in 10 days by working at self-rule than they could learn in a year of classroom study.

Thomas J. Swisher, who was chief justice of the Ohio Supreme court at Boys' State, said he owes his position as president of the senior class at Senior high school to the campaigning experience he obtained while at Boys' State

The youths who participated in the activities at Ohio Wesleyan were Benjamin R. Baith, Ronald C Bender, Charles A Brown, Richard D Butts, Fred E Durig, Joseph E Haring, James E Marshall, David H. Moore. Thomas W. Owen Thomas J Swisher, John C Stacey, Eugene L Riblet, Richard P Rohleder David Martin Wappner Lewis F. Winbigler, and James M. Zehner

John Stout, Senior high school instructor, is in charge of the American Legion's Boys' State program here.

Ex-Resident's High Mass Set

Funeral High Mass will be said at St. Peter's Catholic church Monday at 9:30 a. m for Edward Leathers, 44, of 318 Springmill street. Mr. Leathers died Tuesday night at the General hospital in Denver, Colo., following an extended illness.

Born in Marion, Ind., July 10, 1904, Mr. Leathers came to Mansfield with his parents when a child. He was a former employe of the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company and a member of St. Peter's Catholic church.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Rose Leathers, five brothers, Julius F., Michael, Frank, Peter and Joseph, and one sister, Mrs Stella Kimes, all of Mansfield

Msgr. R C Goebel will officiate at the funeral High Mass and burial will be in the Mansfield Catholic cemetery.

The body will arrive at the Geiger funeral home late Friday. Friends may call at the funeral home after noon Saturday.

NEW SHOP OPENS

A shop, dealing in chinaware imported from Bavaria and England, has been opened at 120 Lind avenue by Mrs. Elsie Scheuer.

14 Tickets Prove Costly

It cost Harold E. Hamilton, Mansfield, R. D 2 $25 for violating the city parking meter ordinance.

A total of 14 tickets were issued against Hamilton between April 13 and June 18 of this year. His failure to pay the $1 fine for each of the violations resulted in his arrest and subsequent release on a $25 bond. He forfeited the bond when he failed to appear in municipal court yesterday afternoon.

According to municipal court the forfeiture evens the score.

Boyd E. Lindsey, Dayton, forfeited a $25 bond on a charge of operating a motor vehicle on a temporary permit, unaccompanied by a licensed driver.

Ten dollar speeding fines were assessed against Homer C. Wagner of Lexington, and Raymond D Englund, of Shiloh.

Fred Dalton jr., 122 East Fourth street was fined $5 and costs for failing to have an operator's license; Farrell B Hipp, 84 East Third street, paid a similar fine for failing to stop at a stop sign, and Burton J. Beck, 669 Springmill street was fined $15 and costs for unsafe operation.

In municipal court this morning Louis Campbell 103 East Second street, was given 10 days in the county jail and fined $10 and costs for assault and battery. The jail sentence was suspended on condition of good behavior.

Smith Heads 25-Year Club

H D. Smith was elected president of the Quarter Century club of the Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance company at the annual meeting for election of officers held at the company office yesterday.

Other officers elected were S. F. Coffin, vice president, H. R. Kreisher, secretary; Mrs. Mary Kay Brause, treasurer; Russell Davis, entertainment chairman; Miss Nina Pollock, advancement chairman and Miss Myrtle Booth, memorial chairman.

The club is made up of employes of the company who have served for 25 years or more.

Mayor Attends State Session

Mayor Roy W Vaughn went to Columbus late this afternoon to attend a meeting of the Association of Ohio Municipalities Legislative committee at the Deshler-Wallick hotel at 7.30 p m.

Mayors of six Ohio cities are on the committee. They will plan legislation to be presented to the general meeting of the association scheduled for Dec. 6 The proposed legislation emphasizes the return of sales tax receipts to Ohio municipalities

Shooting In Shelby Home Sends Wife To Hospital

SHELBY Grace Hoskins, 21, of 85 North Broadway, was reported in "fair" condition today by attaches at Memorial hospital here after being shot accidentally last night by her husband, Elmer, 23.

Local police termed the shooting accidental after the husband's story was verified by Halic Hoskins, 19, a brother to Elmer, and Jean Hoskins, wife of Halic.

Elmer said he was sitting in the dining room of his home holding their baby when he decided to clean a .22-caliber revolver he had used in hunting yesterday afternoon. Believing the gun to be empty, he jokingly pointed it as his wife, who was sitting 20 feet away in the kitchen.

The gun discharged the bullet wounding Mrs Hoskins in the groin She exclaimed "You shot me, Elmer."

After the shooting Mrs. Hoskins ran into the adjoining apartment occupied by Frank Phillips, owner of the double house, and was followed by Elmer Phillips rushed Mrs. Hoskins to the hospital

Elmer was taken into custody but released when all circumstances indicated the shooting was accidental.

Traces History Of Life Insurance

Tracing the origin of life insurance back to the days of the Romans, William McKee, an insurance company division manager, last night told the Gyro club premiums in those days were paid in wine.

Life insurance in its modern dress appeared in England in 1760 and came to the United States in 1840, he informed the club at its regular weekly meeting in the Mansfield-Leland hotel.

Next week the group will hear a talk by Curtis L Ford, Mansfield acting toastmaster.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE FOUR MANSFIELD, OHIO. THURSDAY. NOVEMBER 18, 1948

Reading that "the first atom bombs were toys beside later types," most people are quite content to defer being shown.

Word comes that the world food situation is viewed with "optimism tempered with caution"—which isn't a bad combination for more general application.

Inspiring Example at Friendly House

REPORT of progress on Mansfield's new Friendly House building on North Mulberry street is gratifying, and evidence of co-operative effort is seen in the willingness of members of the bricklayers union to work on Saturdays, at regular pay, in order to expedite construction of the walls.

Going further, it is also revealed that these workers plan to pool their Saturday earnings on this project in a fund to be used to equip a room in the new building.

Friendly House is so definitely an institution dedicated to community service, with the site donated and funds contributed for its construction and maintenance, that the profit element, in both material and labor, may well be reduced to the lowest possible minimum, and the fine spirit shown by bricklayers employed on the job merits commendation.

Better Street Lighting Urged

THE SUBJECT of Mansfield's street lighting is brought to public notice by a report to the effect that this city "has no modern street lighting" and in this respect compares unfavorably with many other progressive cities in its population bracket.

It appears that even in the business areas, where changes in the lighting system have been made from time to time, street illumination is not up to modern standards, while in residential districts street lighting is much behind the times.

Need for improvement of Mansfield's street lighting has been foreseen for quite awhile, but probable cost of modernization has stood in the way of action—as has been the case with urgently needed betterment of the city's sewer system—so this seems to be another instance in which the money must be provided if anything is to be done about it.

Police Prevented From Doing Duties

REPETITION of the frequently heard recommendation that Mansfield should have a larger police force can be interpreted only as meaning that more patrolmen are needed to enforce traffic regulations rather than to perform other duties of policing.

For, if more policemen were made available for other than traffic duty, the question would naturally arise as to what laws they would be expected to enforce and which—on instructions from higher-ups—they were to ignore.

Any patrolman knows, for instance, that the gambling operations which he sees going on all around town are "against the law," but he also knows that he is to keep hands off of this particular offense.

He knows that all that is needed to stop this form of law violation is to pass the word around to operators of various gambling rackets that they were to "cut it out," and the open display of illegal gambling devices, patronized by children and adults alike, would end.

But administration policy dictates otherwise, due to undercover pressure by gambling interests and appearance of unconcern by many of those who might be assumed to prefer having Mansfield avoid the stigma of being classed as "a wide-open town."

Recommendation that the police department personnel be increased will be much more convincing when it is demonstrated that administration policies permit present members of the department to perform their law enforcement duties without being placed in the embarrassing position of being required to ignore state and city laws against commercialized gambling.

Lasting Benefits Merit Preference

A HUMANITARIAN thought was presented in connection with announcement of the funeral service of Mrs. Julia Putnam Leonard, a former Mansfield resident whose death occurred in Cleveland Monday.

It was that, in lieu of flowers, contributions be made to the American Cancer Society. While common practice has been to send flowers, as an expression of sympathy to members of a bereaved family, it sometimes appears that the money invested in such transient tributes might be better used to confer lasting benefits upon the living—as in the case of substituting contributions to the American Cancer Society, or some other worthy cause, instead of adding to the lavish display of flowers which serve only briefly at some funeral services.

Sounds Inviting at the Moment

ARE YOU TIRED of social problems, politics, and polls?

An American newspaper man has discovered a village in Italy which he says is free from those and other modern ills.

Campagna, with 1200 inhabitants, was founded in the fourteenth century, and clings to the ways and habits of that era. The people are gentle and quiet, growing Christmas holly and raising corn and nuts for export. Their religious life centers in their cathedral, which dates from medieval times. No automobiles are used, as the streets are of the stair-step variety. Peace and leisure are characteristic of this village which pursues its quiet way in the medieval manner.

The uncomplicated quality of such an environment seems very appealing to prospective fugitives from modernity. Very likely, however, a few months of such relaxation would put sojourners from America in trim for a campaign to flatten the streets, import automobiles, install plumbing, and change the political set-up.

Women in England are being urged to smoke pipes, in order to relieve the cigaret shortage—and it may even come to a "cigaretless Thursday," or something.

Unrecognized Influences

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON — It is perhaps high time for election analysis to be suspended and to go on to something else. Yet the election saw such a surprising release of forces about which so many of us seemed to know so little that it seems important to find out as much as we can for future guidance.

This is important for the coming Congress upon which these forces will play, and equally important for the administrative wing of government.

It is important for the leaders in both parties in planning policies for the future, and it is important for anyone who has anything to do with creating or directing public opinion.

Incoming letters from a wide cross-section embracing housewives, businessmen and professional people suggest some of the answers that the polling organizations may find when they check back, as they announce they will do, on their original research for this year's election.

First and foremost, the mail indicates that this election was somewhat of a repudiation of the theory of many practical poticians that most people make up their minds well in advance and that campaign speeches change few votes.

There was an unusual fluidity and volatility of opinion among a great many voters this year, with decided shifts during the campaign, it appears. Also a basic assumption of this particular election that people were going to vote merely for "a change" proved to be not so basic. There is, for example, the woman who writes from New York:

"I was one of the people who thought 'a change would be good' —till I saw the workings of the 80th Congress and heard Truman's sincere speeches. Four in our family voted for him—I don't like phonies."

* * *

So Many "Little Things."

CURIOUSLY fluctuating was the experience of an Oregon business man, a distributor. He felt that "sixteen years was a long time for one administration" and "perhaps the dashing Tom might add a new spark of life."

He had a tug also from another direction. Being a friend of Senator Glen Taylor (D-Idaho), vice-presidential candidate on the Progressive ticket, he thought he should go along for Henry Wallace.

In the end he voted for President Truman—"a man who was no better or no worse than my neighbor"—"nothing high hat and you could call him by his first name and not feel a glassy stare."

A possible influence in the election in the Midwest not previously noted is suggested in a very interesting letter from the head of a department in one of our big southern agricultural colleges, a moral type of issue deriving from our tradition. He wrote:

"I made a trip through some of the Midwestern states during the early part of September. The thing which was mentioned most was the Dixiecrats .To most westerners the action of this group was not solely a revolt against Mr. Truman or the Democratic party, but had all the traits of a revolt against the union."

What disturbed people there most, he said, was the failure of Alabama to put the name of the President of the United States on her ballot which, they felt, "constituted an insult to the Union."

"Truman," he continued, "got the vote of many northern and border states because he made the issue clear, that is, as clear as a responsible candidate could. Mr. Dewey did not. To be sure he was for union, but in such a vague way that voters were not sure where he stood."

Another underlying psychological factor in the big farm vote for President Truman, particularly in Iowa, is suggested by a man in Chicago who recalled the terrible hardships of the agricultural depression of the early 1930's, of which the President spoke so often during his campaign.

The Nation Today

It's a Guessing Game

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — People outside Washington must be asking themselves this question:

"Now that President Truman has been elected to a full term and his Democrats are in control of Congress, will he be able to carry out what he promised?"

I think the honest answer is: Nobody knows.

True, Mr. Truman's Democrats outnumber of Republicans in both Houses of Congress. They have a clear majority in both places.

And for that reason, it would seem, the Democrats can push through anything they wish. But it's not as simple as that. And that's the hitch. This story will try to explain why.

In the first place, this is not a time of emergency, such as we had in the depths of the depression in 1933.

At that time, when President Roosevelt came into office and his Democrats had control of Congress, the country was bewildered and desperate.

It was willing to try almost anything that could start the wheels turning.

Congress was in the same helpless mood. It gave Mr. Roosevelt a blank check and rushed through one thing after another that he asked.

It's different now. The country is enormously prosperous, with almost everyone working although not everyone is making good pay.

Because there isn't the same sense of emergency as in 1933, a lot of Democrats and Republicans probably will feel there's no need to rush through what Mr. Truman wants, or in the way he wants it.

It may seem like a time of emergency for many people: Old people unable to live on the social security payments they're getting now; southern Negroes who think they ought to have more civil rights now; school teachers who wish the federal help to raise their salaries.)

* * *

Causes of Uncertainty.

THE FIRST question about the new Congress of 1949 is: How will the Republicans act on the things Mr. Truman wants done?

They seem to have three courses open to them:

1. To accept the big Republican defeat this month as a signal from the people that they want Mr. Truman's program. In this case they'd help him.

2. To try to block some or all of Mr. Truman's program on the grounds that it goes too far.

3. Or play politics by trying to block him and so scramble his program that the voters, out of disgust when they go to the polls again in 1950, will turn out the Democrats and give control of Congress back to the Republicans.

They may do any one of the three things, or combine parts of the three on different parts of the program.

At this point no one can say what they'll do. The Republicans themselves haven't picked their congressional leaders or course of action for 1949.

Then there's the question of Mr. Truman's own Democrats. Not all of them are likely to go along with him on all his ideas.

And if enough of them differ with him on any one point, and join forces with the Republicans against him, this opposition could be the majority on any single vote.

The southern Democrats, or most of them, are dead set against his civil rights program for southern Negroes.

They might be willing to compromise with him in getting through some of his civil rights ideas and then back him on the other parts of his program so he'd have a clear majority in Congress.

But if he insists on putting his whole civil rights program, without compromise, the southerners can be expected to fight him.

If they got mad enough, they might pay him back by joining with Republicans to destroy any chance of getting the rest of his ideas through.

It would be nice to be able to say here positively that this or that will happen. But I don't think anyone in the country, including Mr. Truman, can be that positive at this point.

It does seem likely, though, that the Taft-Hartley Labor Act will be changed.

TODAY IN HISTORY

Susan B. Anthony and several other women who had voted at a national election on November 5, 1872, were arrested on November 18 of that year for illegal voting.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Big Business Was Also a Poor Guesser

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Only one group of people since Nov. 2 have redder faces than the pollsters—the big businessmen who had feathered their nests with Dewey's friends.

Take, for instance, the sad case of delightful Lewis Rosenstiel, head of Schenley's giant distilling company. As one of the leading whisky and wine producers in the USA, Mr. Rosenstiel was interested in having an "in" with the new administration. It was not unnatural therefore that he should busy himself before election in winning and dining various prospective members of the Dewey cabinet.

Mr. Rosenstiel's motto is to leave no stone unturned. He is a successful businessman and he did not become one by accident. He believes in looking ahead.

Therefore, not long before election, he looked ahead and retained Herbert Brownell, campaign manager for Mr. Dewey, as his attorney.

Looking still further ahead, he also retained as his public relations counselor Cary Byoir, a pro-Republican gentleman with pipelines into the Deweyites.

Then to make sure his position with the new administration was secure he invited Dewey to go yachting with him right after the election to get a little post-election rest. Dewey was dated up for a vacation with Roger Strauss of American Smelting and Refining, so Rosenstiel took the next best. He invited Dewey's right-hand man, Paul Lockwood, to go yachting.

Paul accepted. Both Rosenstiel and Lockwood are entertaining gentlemen, but neither felt much like entertaining the other on that post-election trip.

* * *

Inside the Cabinet.

VARIOUS cabinet members, all set to resign, are now angling to remain. One is Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, who gave only $1,000 to the Truman campaign—though one of the wealthiest men in Ohio . . . Averell Harriman, Marshall Plan ambassador in Europe, has sent an urgent cable to President Truman asking permission to come home to discuss a wide range of subjects. (Friends say he wants to be secretary of state.) . . . If Attorney General Tom Clark is elevated to the Supreme Court, the next attorney general will be either Clark Clifford or Alex Campbell, hard-hitting head of the Criminal Division . . . Here's one cabinet revision being discussed by the dopesters: Chief Justice Fred Vinson to be secretary of state; Attorney General Tom Clark to the Supreme Court as associate justice; William O. Douglas to be chief justice. (Wouldn't that burn Felix Frankfurter up?) . . . Albert Greenfield, the big Philadelphia real estate man, is in line for either the Truman cabinet or an embassy.

* * *

Recalling Dolly Gann Row.

Capital hostesses, who haven't enjoyed a good social row since the days of Dolly Gann and Alice Longworth's spat over who should sit where at dinner, have been glowing with anticipation over the problem of who will be Vice President Barkley's official hostess, and where she will rank at official dinners.

Vice President Barkley, like Vice President Charlie Curtis, is a widower. That was why Curtis's half-sister, Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, was made his official hostess. And it was the question of whether the vice president's sister or the wife of Speaker Longworth preceded the other at dinner which threw social Washington into such a hubbub during the Hoover administration.

However, it looks as if Alben Barkley would disappoint the ladies. Alben is not averse to going out to dinner. In fact, he is in great demand. But he doesn't relish social rows.

Furthermore, his counterpart is also single—Speaker-to-be Sam Rayburn. Close friends, Sam and Alben have been going out together as widowers for so long that the idea of their rowing over protocol brings smiles to those who know them.

Sam was married once, so long ago that most people think he was always a bachelor. He has no official hostess and doesn't intend to have one.

Barkley, whose wife was an invalid for many years before she died, also goes to dinner on his own. Barkley says he's had a "number of applicants" for the job, but if he needs an official hostess, he will draft his daughter, gracious Mrs. Max Truitt.

* * *

Merry-Go-Round.

ALL American ambassadors have received cables from the State Department reminding them that it's customary to submit their resignations. Truman wants a free hand to select new diplomats . . . U. S. Ambassador to Moscow Bedell Smith has been pulling wires to get General Clay's job as commander in Berlin. He's not likely to succeed . . . Not all of President Truman's callers get into the newspapers. One significent secret caller was Chicago's Democratic Boss, Jake Arvey, the man who helped Truman carry the surprise state—Illinois . . . John Maragon, President Truman's old bootblack friend from the Kansas City union station, feels that the election guarantees his future. Maragon is trying to hire one of the fanciest office suites in Washington for William Helis, the New Orleans oil man. Maragon is supposed to run the Helis office in Washington.)

Voluntary Civil Defense

By KENNETH L. DIXON

WASHINGTON — Behind the mammoth civilian defense program which recently was outlined and urged by Defense Secretary Forrestal lies an object lesson to all those people who still contend that a dictatorship is more effective in times of emergency than a democracy.

The lesson, ironically enough, comes from within the Pentagon Building itself — underscored by ranking military leaders who, from time to time, have themselves been accused of leaning toward dictatorial methods.

Prior to establishment of the office of civil defense planning last March, the problem of the civilian's part in any possible future war already had been under intensive study for an extended period. Handling that study was the war department civil defense board.

Actually, the board proper was set up near the end of 1946, but over its desks came reports which had been in the process of development for more than a year previously.

All through 1947, it listened to witnesses and studied evidence gathered at home and abroad. Last February, it issued its report—and that report became the springboard for operations of the new office of civil defense planning which succeeded it and took the problem off its hands.

Thus, much of the recently announced program merely amounted to turning the findings of the old war department civil defense board into the recommendations of the new civil defense planning office.

In short, the board of civilians studied the suggestions of the board of professional soldiers and found them good—which brings us to the point involving the efficiency of a democracy in times of crisis.

* * *

Dictation Ineffective.

THE TWO chief points set forth by the new program involve, (1) self-help, wherein a community—or an individual—takes care of its, or his, own needs, and (2) mutual aid of one individual to another, and one community to another.

Those two points also were underscored in the February report of the military board. Since this country had not undergone the trial-by-fire conditions necessary to crystallize such civilian defense, the key examples had to come from those countries which had—namely England, Germany and Japan. (France and Italy could give little information because of their confused geographic and political roles during the war, and Russia provided less for even more obvious reasons.)

Thus, of the three major examples, two were under dictatorships and the third under a democratic form of government. High-ranking men who served on the early board admitted privately that they first expected to find that the dictatorships functioned more smoothly in civilian defense matters when war struck.

Instead, they discovered the opposite was true, and duly reported their findings.

Of the three, according to those findings, only Great Britain dealt directly with the so-called "local authorities," and it did not matter what their politics might be.

By not hiding the possibility of war from the people, much of this was done in advance. But the main point was that everything operated on a "local authority" or individual basis—the old business of self-help, so essential in any crisis.

The British system worked well and effectively.

By contrast, in Germany, despite the totalitarian system, the control of civilian defense became a political football, kicked around by Hitler's top aides.

Japan, despite an earlier start and a more meticulous program, was even worse, because the people refused to take it seriously.

Thus, in the final analysis, only the individual understanding and initiative of the citizens of a democracy could function effectively when the crisis finally came.

As Others See It

Simple Matter.

Arguments against a national health plan on the basis of cost don't take into consideration that a dynamic, resourceful Congress could declare sickness illegal.—Detroit News.

Try Memorizing Poetry

By CALVIN A. BYERS

"ALL this time and at all times
wait the words of true poems,
The words of true poems do not merely please,

The true poets are not followers of beauty but the august masters of beauty; . . . Divine instinct, breadth of vision, the law of reason, health, rudeness of body, withdrawnness,

Gayety, sun-tan, air-sweetness, such are some of the words of poems" . . . so sang Walt Whitman.

"The words of the true poems give you more than poems. They give you to form for yourself poems, religions, politics, war, peace, behavior, histories, essays, daily life, and everything else.

They balance ranks, colors, races, creeds and the sexes . . ."

* * *

THOSE students of mine who have known me, will remember that no class of mine ever went very long without being required to memorize suitable poetry. I believe in the poetry of the masters as I believe in the Bible. It is the inspiration of great minds, and has a power to light and warm the mind. Not every boy (or girl) of high school age knows what he has learned when he memorizes something. He will meet a problem, or feel a need.

Then the lines of the poet will become luminous, lighting his way through a dark experience or a time of trial. He will begin to realize, then, the real meaning of education.

If it were possible to bring his best out of every man, we would have a wonderful world. Poetry gives us a vision of what we might become. But it is strong meat, not to be taken in overdoses. I speak of real poetry—not synthetic rhymes or jingles.

Charles Vildrac, a Frenchman, wrote a poem, "The One Song." Briefly, the scene is evening. A wagoner hides in his cart with his hat drawn down; a great lord wanders aimlessly through the park of his nearby estate; a shopkeeper huddles by himself in his shop, dreading to turn on the lights. Each man grieves alone, thinking of his dead child.

The three men do not wear the same clothes, do not eat the same food, do not talk in the same fashion. Their lives do not touch each other much — yet — says Vildrac—if you should have them on a bench behind you in the darkness and sing to them a song about a man who carries through the bitter-blowing night-air his little child, wrapped in his great-coat, asleep and warm . . .

"If you sang that song without turning your head—
Because of their eyes and their shyness—
Might you not hear
The stifled sound of but one sob?"

Ohioans Win Big Share Of Honors

Buckeyes Earn 169 Top Medals

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Ohioans have won 169 of the 2,116 Congressional medals of honor awarded to soldiers.

Buckeye soldiers also won 19 of the 292 such decorations—the highest granted to the nation's military heroes—given out in the last war.

This is shown in a new book published by the department of the army. The history tells what each man did to win the decoration.

Ohioans won theirs in the last war in battlefields all over the globe—flying over Romanian oil fields, storming Jap pillboxes in the Solomons and knocking out strong German positions in Germany and Italy.

Most of the awards were granted posthumously.

Here in brief, are examples of how Ohioans won their medals, taken from the first army compilation of medal of honor citations ever published:

Lt. Robert Craig, Toledo, won his citation in Sicily, by charging 100 enemy soldiers to save his platoon from fire. He, himself, was killed.

Lewis Hall, Corppsof Bloom, was killed at Guadalcanal in holding up a Japanese attack from a hazardous position from which he refused to retire.

Private Frank Petrarca, Cleveland, was decorated posthumously for aiding other wounded soldiers under heavy fire in the Solomon Islands.

Private Roger W. Young, Tiffin, was killed, also in the Solomons, when, alone and wounded, he attacked a Jap pill box, diverting enemy fire from his platoon.

Lt. Col. Addison E. Baker, who entered service from Akron, led a heavy bomber group over oil installations at Ploesti, Romania, although his plane had been hit and set afire. His aircraft crashed in flames after he dropped his bombs.

SNAPSHOT CONTEST WINNER — The above picture, submitted by Harold W. Faulk, Ashland, won first prize for the area in a contest sponsored by Sears, Roebuck and company. The award will be $50 in merchandise from the local Sears store. Other winners were: Walter Kobbe, Canton; Earl Shreffler, 295½ East Second street, and David Mecklem, 2107 Saxton road. All four entries will be submitted for a national contest to be judged soon in Chicago. Prizes will total $1,000.

FIRST IN CONTEST

BUTLER — Sarah Rader won first, and Elizabeth Ward was second in the Prince of Peace declamation contest held Sunday in the Methodist church.

Dinner, Play Mark Session Of Brownies

Members of Brownie troop 56, and their families attended a family-night pot-luck dinner at Prospect park pavilion Wednesday.

Following the dinner, members of the troop presented an Indian play, "Mighty Magic." The play was adapted from a book of the same title and was given in connection with National Book Week which is being observed this week.

Those who took part in the play were Claire Mast as Alice; Dorothy Lewis as HoSa; Margaret Scott as Chief NoJi; Jeanette Brubaker as Grannie; Kay Ackerman, Karen Ackerman, Marylin Powell and Barbara Jones as pirates; and Linda Kay Hartman as the reader.

Judy Crum, president of the troop, welcomed the families and introduced Miss Margaret Rooney, executive director of Girl Scouts, who gave a short talk.

Included on the program was a piano solo by Marilyn Powell.

Troop leaders are Mrs. Emmett Casey and Mrs. Thomas Scott.

Now Is Time For Planting Evergreens

Now, or any time before the ground freezes, is an ideal season for setting out evergreens, especially in the north - - - hedges, windbreaks, specimens, foundation plantings, or broad-leaved evergreen borders. These can be set in spring, but the average home gardener often has a little more time in autumn. Then, too, he counts on winter rains and snows to establish roots before a hot, dry summer begins.

As Dr. Richard P. White, executive secretary of the American Association of Nurserymen, points out, your local nursery firm or garden advisor can give you valuable advice about planning your grounds.

Planting rules are simple but important. First make sure your sites are suitable. Most evergreens prefer a fairly acid soil; easily obtained by adding peatmoss, leafmold, or oak leaves, plus in some instances, a little ammonium sulphate. Laurel, rhododendrons and azaleas like sheltered positions with some evergreen shade.

Make a planting plan on paper, then try burlapped specimens in actual position to see how they look. Holes wider and deeper than the root ball should be prepared. Well-rotted manure of other humus in the bottom of the hole, with a good layer of topsoil above is desirable. The burlap should be removed or loosened around the base of the plant. Place the plant in the hole, being careful not to break the ball of earth. Shovel in more good soil mixed with humus and tamp well around ball. Soak with water until the earth will not absorb another drop. No air spaces. Leave a slight depression around plant to hold moisture. In late November add a mulch of peat, oak leaves, or pine straw.

Your new treasures will be all set and ready to go for spring.

Stibnite, Idaho, is named after an antimony ore.

HOROSCOPE

For Friday, November 19

WHILE there may be disconcerting and menacing turn of events to block the wheels of progress, or to upset cherished plans and projects, yet there is nothing of such tenacious character that may not be dissolved or solved by an unshakable determination and honest work. Also any inclination to splurge, to show off, extravagance in funds or conduct, should be curbed if loss and disappointment are to be sidestepped.

If It I s Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may find a situation of upset plans and purposes, with need for sharp revision or new techniques or objectives. A sturdy resistance to any upheaval, supported by shrewd tactics and sound insight into underlying principles, could mend broken fences. Rash, impulsive or arrogant conduct could penalize sustained loss and regrets. Exaggreqtion, excesses and bombats in home or business could disrupt plans.

REV. MADDEN GIVES TALK TO BETA CHAPTER, SOROSIS

"Public Speaking" Theme of Informative Talk Given at Louis Piller Home.

REV. MATTHEW MADDEN, pastor of the First Congregational church, addressed members of the Beta chapter, Mansfield Sorosis, last evening at a guest meeting held at the home of Mrs. Louis Piller, Westview boulevard. He used as his theme, "Public Speaking."

"There are three expressions of speech: verbal, meaning words the speaker chooses; vocal, which is the tone or modulation of the voice, and pantomimical, which is the speaker's action," said Rev. Madden.

"Verbal and vocal expression must harmonize to make a speech effective," he continued. "Public speaking not only opens new worlds for the speaker but helps convey them to others," he said in closing.

Twenty members and five guests, Mrs. William Linton, Miss Henrietta Frank, Mrs. E. J. Osborne, Mrs. C. E. Bahl and Mrs. Kenneth Erb, were in attendance.

A brief business session was in charge of Mrs. Stuart Baird.

When refreshments were served by Mrs. Piller and her associate hostess, Mrs. Floyd Davis, yellow and white mums decorated the table.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. Harold Mansfield, Sturges avenue, at 8 p. m. At that time there will be a panel discussion on "Science In Our Time."

Chapter AT Given Talk By Guest

Mrs. H. P. Bamford, of Maumee, Ohio, state organizer of P.E.O., was the guest speaker Wednesday at the meeting of Chapter AT. Mrs. George Hall, Highland avenue, was hostess at her home. Mrs. Bamford spoke to the group on activities of other P.E.O. Sisterhoods throughout the state. She said there are now 96,000 members in P.E.O. in the United States.

Luncheon was served to 18 from a table attractively appointed with yellow and white mums. Mrs. Russell Cline, president, conducted the business session.

Mrs. Willis Carto was welcomed as a new member.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 1 at the home of Mrs. M. M. Feaman, Park avenue west, at 10 a. m.

SALES TAX WORK

The Dorcas society of the Seventh Day Adventist church met at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Borchers, Sturges avenue, with ten members in attendance. Mrs. Raymond Mattox conducted the business session. Sales tax stamps was the work of the afternoon. The place of the next meeting will be announced later.

'West Indies' Program Given To Nomads

Mrs. E. R. Hartman gave a talk on the "West Indies" at the Nomads club meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tom Ford, Alta road.

Mrs. Hartman told of the poor living standards under which natives exist and the political conditions the natives have. There are 2,000 miles of islands and 6,000,000 people. A general discussion followed the talk.

The guests for the meeting were Mrs. M. S. Gowing, Mrs. H. S. Caldwell, Mrs. Albert Thorne, Mrs. M. W. Manz jr., Mrs. J. L. Eberly and Miss Dorothy Herring. Twenty-five members were in attendance.

A luncheon was held before the business session.

The next meeting will be held December 1 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Sorenson, 451 Park avenue west. Mrs. Fred L. Wolf will give a talk on "Chinaman."

Ladies' Aid Has Program

The Ladies' Aid of the First Evangelical United Brethren church held their regular monthly meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Clifton Balliett, Lucas road. Mrs. Pearl DeMoss and Mrs. Henry Barr were associate hostesses.

The scripture was read by Mrs. Harvey Bowser. Mrs. Ernest Chronister reviewed the biblical account of the "Feast of the Tabernacle." "This," she said, "was the first Thanksgiving season which lasted eight days. Then the Pilgrims' first Thanksgiving was reviewed. She told how Sarah Josepha Hale's untiring efforts are credited with our having Thanksgiving day now a national holiday.

Mrs. Robert Hoover played a piano solo entitled, "By the Waters of Minnetowka." "Thanksgiving," a poem by C. W. L. Day, was read by Mrs. Hugh Scott.

Mrs. DeMoss conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Walter Codes closed the meeting with prayer. A luncheon was served by the hostesses to the 22 members present. The next meeting will be held Dec. 15 at the home of Mrs. V. C. Stamets, 79 Park avenue east.

DAV Auxiliary Plans Party

The D. A. V. auxiliary held their regular social and business meeting last night at their clubrooms with ten members present.

Plans were made for a Christmas party. The date will be announced later. Mrs. Robert Keefe directed the social. Contests were played and prizes were won by Mrs. W. H. McLellan, Mrs. Helen Morrison and Mrs. O. B. Adams.

St. Peter's parsonage was the scene of the wedding of Miss Bernice Stueve and Robert Baker, Nov. 6. Rev. Father Consces officiated for the ceremony at 10:30 a. m. Miss Stueve is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stueve, 324 First avenue, and Mr. Baker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baker, 129 East Second street. The couple is residing at the bride's parents' home since their honeymoon through northern Ohio.

MRS. ROBERT BAKER

Journey Club Has Luncheon Wednesday

Mrs. Harry Wineland jr. presided at a table centered with an arrangement of fall flowers Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Cummins, 529 Summit street, at the Journey club meeting.

The program for the afternoon was "Read 'Em and Weep." This review of old songs was prepared by Mrs. D. R. Baker of Middletown, Ohio and read at the meeting by Mrs. W. J. Acomb.

The next meeting will be December 1 at the Women's club with Mrs. William Althouse as the hostess. The roll call will be answered with current events and Mrs. C. V. McConnell will give the program on "Current Best Sellers."

Mrs. Courtney Gives Program

Miss Maude Stewart, 23 Greenwich avenue, was hostess to members of the Women's Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Orlan Hoyer, president, presided over the business session.

Roll call was answered with either a scripture verse or a missionary item.

Mrs. A. E. Courtney gave the topic for the afternoon. She spoke on "The Christian Attitude Toward Our Neighbors in the South and Also the Indians." Her talk was concluded with a program on "Hand In Hand Toward Others."

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The regular missionary prayer session was held before the general session.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Proctor, 604 Highland avenue, December 15.

'Late Romanticism' Sappho Club Wednesday Program Theme

MRS. OLAN AUGHBAUGH was welcomed as a new member when the Sappho club met Wednesday at the Women's Club. Mrs. J. M. Garber presided as hostess for the luncheon program meeting. Fall appointments were used attractively for the table decorations. A brief business session was conducted by Mrs. Glenn Rohleder, president.

Mrs. Aughbaugh will represent the club as a musical member.

"Late Romanticism" was the theme of the musical and literary program. Mrs. Dean Eckert played the piano selection, "Romance," by Sibelius, and Mrs. Jay Chubbs sang "Tomorrow," by Strauss, and "After a Dream," by Foure.

Mrs. Charles Sheriff gave a most interesting paper on "Contemporary Poetry," illustrating with several favorite selections.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 1 at the Women's Club with Mrs. T. D. Brown as hostess.

KATHRYN BEER

Kathryn Beer To Be Wed On December 3

Mr. and Mrs. L. Merle Beer, 20 Bahl avenue, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kathryn Ann, to Richard M. Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel F. Roberts, 21 Bahl avenue.

The ceremony will take place Dec. 3 at the First Christian church with the Rev. B. F. Hagelbarger officiating. Open church will be observed at 7:30 p. m.

They are both graduates of Madison high school. Miss Beer is employed at the Tappan Stove company, and Mr. Roberts, who served in the US Navy, is now employed by his father at the Roberts Body and Paint shop.

Group Holds Chapter Night

The Women of the Moose met Wednesday evening for a closed and formal session. Mrs. Micheal Campanelli, senior regent, presided.

Mrs. John Spiker, chairman of the Library committee, was in charge of the chapter night session. She introduced Mrs. Howard Wenning, guest speaker for the evening, who spoke on the Girl Scouts of Mansfield. She also showed interesting pictures of the Girl Scout camp.

Twenty-four candidates were initiated into the club.

Refreshments were served by the committee after the meeting.

The next session will be December 1.

Jolly-ettes Name Officers

Mrs. Philip Stehle jr., 516 Harter avenue, was recently elected president of the Jolly-Ettes at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Lola Friend, Seminole avenue.

Other officers elected were, vice president, Mrs. Frank Hammer; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Wilhelm and reporter, Mrs. Lloyd Prosser.

Games and contests were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Stehle, Mrs. Wilhelm and Mrs. Ruth Lyons.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 9 at the home of Mrs. Stehle, 516 Harter avenue. A Christmas dinner will be served at 7 p. m. and a gift exchange will follow.

Current Books Group Meets

Miss Frances Handall reviewed briefly three books for the second meeting of the Current Books group of the American Association of University Women Tuesday evening at the First Christian church. Thirteen members were in attendance.

The speaker first talked on "New Song in a Strange Land" by Esther Warner. In this story Mrs. Warner gives a pleasant portrayal of the natives of north Africa. The characters in the book depict the honesty, sincerity and courage of these people.

"Road to Survival," by William Vogt was the second book reviewed. This deals with soil conservation in Africa and throughout the world. He states that natives never destroy the land as civilized people do.

"Cry, the Beloved," by Alan Paton, was the third presentation. This book has Johannesburg, South Africa, as its setting. The author portrays his characters with a depth of religious understanding.

Miss Alice Kirkwood, president, announced the next meeting will be held Jan. 18 when Mrs. Harold Robson gives a review.

157th Farmer's Bible!

'Old Farmer's Almanac' Off the Press

WASHINGTON — (AP) — It's a rare thing anymore around the big cities.

But get out where the pigs squeal, the cows moo, the coyotes howl, the crickets crick and the pump handle squeaks and you'll find folks still looking at the "old farmer's almanac" to find out what's comin' next.

The latest edition just came out. The 157th consecutive one. I wasn't around to watch the presses roll over the first one in 1792.

But word comes down the line that the little yellow-bound booklet (which now sells for two-bits) hasn't changed any more than the moon and stars from which the forecasts come.

There are the usual features, including the weather, astronomy, planting, fish and game, tides, etc. The blurb on the 1949 copy advertises an enlarged recipe section, many of the new scientific developments on the farm, cartoons by Francis W. Dahl and a story about track star Gil Dodds, the trottin' parson, "who runs for the Lord."

Most interesting review of last winter's weather was the account of the green rain which fell on Dayton, O., on March 26th. All this happened the day after three moons were seen in Boston—"the real moon with a 'dog moon' on either side."

So much for last winter.

This winter, the almanac says, it won't be as drippy or as cold as last year. However, it'll last a little longer into March when we can expect rain, sleet and snow.

The "old farmer's almanac" is none of the city dweller's business. It's printed to help the man in overalls.

Starting with January: "You will have more time to think things out this year than any other month." Mark that down, sir.

"February," the almanac advises, "is the month for seed catalogues, March is fix-the-busted-harness-and-plough-points month; in April the crows fly north; in May it is not too late yet to set out the young orchards; in June the crowing of the rooster makes a man want to be up and doing; July is the month to put in dams to forestall forest fires; in August you ought to be out mulching the orchard, or spreading hay, straw or leaves around the trees; September is the month to go into the woods and cut the rungs for the ladder you're bound to want to make; everybody rakes the leaves in October; and fall-seeds in November; December brings Christmas and crisp weather—and keen thoughts."

All these with forcasts of frost bite and sun burn.

Truckers Receive Raise In Strike

SPRINGFIELD, — (AP) — The trucks of 17 Springfield haulers moved again yesterday after settlement of a two-week strike over wage demands. The AFL Teamsters' union drivers had demanded a 15-cent-an-hour pay raise, the companies had offered ten cents, and the settlement yesterday was for 12½ cents.

IS UNWANTED HAIR HIDING YOUR NATURAL BEAUTY AND CHARM?

Superfluous hair causes so much unhappiness that it changes the mental attitude of those that have it—gives them a dark outlook on life—changes them from a carefree person to a nervous, shy person, because they are always trying to hide their face from the people that they meet. No matter how well you are dressed, or how you apply your make-up, you cannot keep superfluous hair from being seen. No case is too far advanced, if you tweeze, shave, or use other methods to remove the hair temporarily, you owe it to yourself, your family and friends to have the hair permanently removed by electrolysis, the only method endorsed by physicians everywhere.

All work is done by appointment, from 1:30 to 9 P. M. Phone 5325 during these hours for appointment or write for free information. There is no charge for private consultation. I use the Brantronic Short Wave system on the legs and arms and it removes around 1,000 hairs per hour. On the face, I use the Kreeten needle machine for coarse hairs, and removes around 120 hairs per hour. The charge for either machine is $5 per hour. Work is done for men and women.

Why go through your life being unhappy because you have superfluous hair when you can have it permanently removed?

Bookmarks In Libraries Are Reminders of Seal Campaign

All books borrowed from Richland county's public libraries within the next few weeks will contain a bookmark reminding their readers of the importance of buying and using Christmas Seals.

Bookmarks placed in every book taken from the libraries will contain information on the 1948 Christmas seal sale which opens Nov 22 and continues until Christmas. Funds from the seal sale will be used to support the tuberculosis control work of the Richland County Tuberculosis association which supplied the bookmarks.

Miss Lois MacKellar, librarian, at the Mansfield public library, said that she and her co-workers were glad to participate in distributing "this particular Christmas announcement."

"The public education program of the tuberculosis association is one of its most important," said Miss MacKellar. "We librarians like to think that we are in a position to help directly with the association's educational projects."

Members of 164th Fighter Unit Will Be Exempt From Draft

Men between the ages of 17 years and 18½ years, will be exempt from the draft by serving with the 164th Fighter squadron of the Ohio Air National Guard, Capt. William O. Ash announced today.

Governor Thomas J. Herbert issued a proclamation making it possible for the men in that age group to take their military training at home without interrupting their education or careers, Capt. Ash said.

The Selective Service Act of 1948 states that governors of states may issue such proclamations when the authorized strength of National Guard units cannot be maintained. A man who enlists in the National Guard prior to attaining the age of 18 years, six months is deferred so long as he "continues to serve satisfactorily."

Those men interested in joining the 164th should apply at squadron headquarters, hangar 7, Mansfield Municipal airport. Applicants can report at the regular weekly training periods held every other week end. Further information about the Air National Guard may be obtained by calling 4207-3.

Air National Guardsmen receive a full day's pay at regular air force rates for every two-hour training period. Veterans get an additional five per cent for every three years of service.

Everyone Suggests Cabinet Names So Newsman Compiles His Own List

NEW YORK—(AP)—President Truman is finding no shortage of volunteer carpenters in his task of building his 1949 cabinet.

Everybody is lumbering up with a new idea. If all who have been suggested for a place were included, the cabinet would have to have more posts than a fence around Texas.

Jest in fun, Editor and Publisher, magazine of the press, nominated a formidable cabinet composed entirely of newspapermen.

And Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Producers association, more seriously advanced the thought that America's top labor leaders should be chosen for key diplomatic jobs abroad.

This idea is fascinating. If it is carried out, my nominee for ambassador of England is John L. Lewis. His $50,000 salary and $25,000 expense account give him the necessary financial background.

And what an impressive figure old John would make at the court of St. James's—with his florid Shakespearean oratory, his ponderous, eloquent eyebrows. In knee breeches and silk hose he would be unforgettable. The labor government of England would have to sit up and listen to a man who won a $100 a month pension for American coal miners.

Perhaps it is time we widened the whole base on which government leaders are appointed—and include men and women from all classes. It is an essence of the democratic belief that people grow with responsibility.

And this is an era of experiment anyway. The nation's foreign policy of seeking world peace is largely being carried out by professional military men even as, paradoxically, gentle scientists are researching the weapons for a possible third world war.

Just for a starter, I have compiled a tentative list of appointees, which is being forwarded to Key West by the next passenger pigeon that flies this way. Here it is:

For secretary of agriculture—Milton Berle, who has run the price of corn up to the highest peak in history. Or Fred Allen, who gets about as much for chaff.

Secretary of labor—Tommy Manville, who makes work out of play.

Secretary of the interior—Sherman Billingsley of the Stork club, who has made a career out of satisfying the inner man.

Secretary of the treasury—Bernard Baruch, because in crowded Washington his fondness for a park bench would save office space. Alternate choice: Jack Benny, who spends a dime finger by finger.

Secretary of defense—Greta Garbo. She keeps her barriers high.

Attorney-general—some good bartender. He'll never drop a case.

Secretary of state—Barbara Hutton. As chief of foreign affairs, she'd have the experience to keep us out of entangling alliances.

And for U. S. representative to the United Nations, nobody but that arch diplomat of the diamond—Leo Durocher. Whenever Vishinsky rose to voice his perennial charge that the U. S. is trying to build an empire, Leo would have his answer ready:

"Who wants an empire? Not us. No empire was ever any good."

With a team like that America could never strike out.

Walter Winchell

College, High School Journalism Students Put Columnist On Spot

INTERVIEW

Following Sunday's broadcast Univ. of Miami and Senior High School editors, who witnessed it, put us on the following spot:

Q: What do you think will happen to the two newly formed parties, the Dixiecrats and the Progressives?

A: The Dixiecrats are cracking up now. But they should join the Republican diehards. The Liberal Republicans should join the Democrats. Senators Morse of Oregon and Ives of N. Y. (Republicans) are far more liberal than Senator Byrd of Virginia, a bitterly conservative Democrat. . . . I don't know what the Progressive (The Wallaceites) will do next and neither do they, until they read the Party-Line in The Daily Scummunist.

Q: What basic advice have you for young people planning a journalistic career?

A: You can't plan newspaper work. It is the only profession where irregularity happens regularly....Reporting is an addiction, not a vocation. The only excuse for being a reporter is that you can't help it. Unless you'd sooner have a press card in your hat than a million dollars in your wallet, don't wast your time—or an editor's.

Q: What is your solution for combatting juvenile delinquency?

A: The first step is for adults to be honest with themselves. I'm enough of a reporter, I think, to know that there's always too much self-complacency (plus smugness and hypocrisy) present when unluck people are put in a class and given a bad name. I think juve-delink needs more attention and less publicity. There's very littel wrong with the younger generation that couldn't be cured by more honesty in the older one.

Q: What are the main shortcomings of the U. N.?

A: Its shortcomings are that it was stabbed in the back by its own bodyguards. That the Nations of the world measured it in power instead of in souls....That it was begrudged a few acres in which to make peace—in a world in which there are hundreds of square miles of military cemetries ....The nations have even refused to cooperate on the feeding of 30 million orphans....In short, there is nothing the matter with the United Nations, except that the Nations never unite—except for war.

Q: Has the U. N. accomplished anything to its outstanding credit?

A: Yes, it has. It has been and it is the hope of the common people all over the world. The diplomats are so afraid of this greatest of all forces—The Will of the Common People— that though they despise it in private and insult it in public, no nation on earth feels itself powerful enough to take the responsibility for killing it. The U. N. (in the diplomatic world) is hated by the diplomats the way a crook hates his conscience. The U. N.'s greatest service is that no nation dares leave its fingerprints on the throat of peace. There's hope-because no one has nerve enough to kill this baby.

Q: Have you a solution to the Palestine problem?

A: Stop sending U. S. arms and money to England, which keeps sharing it with the Arabs. Our Founding Fathers didn't like it when the country was having labor pains and the Hessians butted in.

★

Q: Whom do you think the Republicans will nominate next time?

A: Eisenhower, if they can get him away from the Democrats.

Sets Time For Next Depression

Marion Attorney Talks to Credit Men

The next depression will come "when all the money in circulation will not buy all the goods for sale at prices being charged at any one time," Ben Wiant, Marion attorney, told members of the North Central Ohio division of the National Association of Credit Men last night.

Members met for the dinner meeting at the Richland Recreation.

Wiant said he believed Americans have turned the corner and that the upward inflationary spiral will soon start the other way.

"You can change the political administration any time, but you cannot change the economic pattern," he said. "Even though the Taft-Hartley law may be repealed, you cannot change the law of supply and demand."

Although inflation may continue, he said, he did not believe it would be a runaway inflation since the government is not spending above the national income and the currency has not reached the "printing press stage."

A corporation lawyer, Wiant is treasurer and attorney for the Osgood company, the Alloy Cast Steel company, General Excavator company and the Commercial Steel Casting company. He also serves as executive secretary of the Marion Youth Fund.

Wiant was introduced by the retiring president of the group, J. A. Mintz.

ELECT REASER

Election of officers for the organization resulted in the selection of H. A. Reaser, credit manager of the F. E. Myers and Bros. company of Ashland, as president; G. R. Cashell, credit manager of the Barnes Manufacturing company as vice president, and E. J. Osborne, treasury department of Westinghouse, as secretary-treasurer.

Additional directors of the group are Mintz, treasurer of the Barnes Manufacturing company; F. A. Ferguson, manager of the treasury department of Westinghouse; C. S. Watters, assistant treasurer of Ohio Seamless Tube company; C. N. Sutton, executive vice president of the Richland Trust company; F. F. Corfman, treasurer of the W. A. Riddell corporation, and Miss E. M. Flowers, credit manager of the Ohio Overcoat company.

New officers will be installed Dec. 10 at a dinner party for the group. On Jan. 18, Russell Weisman, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer editorial staff, will address the organization on "What's Ahead For 1949."

Loaded Rifle Amuses Four Small Boys

Police last night halted what could have turned into a tragic few minutes of play for four small boys ranging in age from eight to 10 years old.

Officers, hurrying to Woodlawn avenue on a report of an observant neighbor, found the boys playing with a loaded .22 calibre rifle.

Besides a lengthy talking-to for the boys on the danger of loaded firearms, police remonstrated the baby-sitter for allowing the children to get possession of the gun. Police ordered the gun locked up and out of reach of the children.

Officers said they confiscated 12 cartridges from the gun.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL

HAMILTON —(AP)— Anthony Alf, 72, died yesterday of injuries received when struck by an automobile.

Indiana Police Join Search

Report Seeing Torture Pair

BRYAN —(INS)— A man and woman who tortured and robbed a Greenville couple were reported seen at least four times near Bryan today.

Indiana police immediately joined the search for the couple who held Robert Cooper, 40, and his wife, Kathleen, 36, for two hours Monday night and cut three rings valued at more than $2,000 from Mrs. Cooper's fingers.

Cooper was beaten and four of his teeth were pulled because the robbers were dissatisfied with the amount of loot.

The Ohio state patrol said the most reliable tip came today from a truck driver who told the Indiana state police he had seen the robber pair hitch-hiking toward Indiana.

The Indiana state police put down an intensive watch over U. S. Route 6 from Bryan into Indiana.

Cooper said he did not lose consciousness during the two-hour beating he took about the face and head.

He told police the robber couple accosted him and his wife as they emerged from their car at their home about midnight, blindfolded them with adhesive tape, then wrecked the house in their search.

TORTURE VICTIMS—Robert Cooper, 40, and his wife, Kathleen, 36, of Greenville, O., are shown above as they appeared after a man and woman robbed the couple. The robbers pulled four of Cooper's teeth with a pair of pliers.—(International)

The bandits apparently were disappointed over the amount of cash they found in Cooper's safe. They stole a fur coat belonging to Mrs. Cooper and some of Mrs. Cooper's clothing.

Mrs. Cooper loosened the tape binding her feet and called police from a neighbor's home.

34 Sign Up For Course

Night Classes Get Under Way

There are still 11 openings in the evening trade extension courses at Senior high school, V. H. Oberlander said today. The maximum for these classes is 45, and 34 have registered this week.

Classes began Monday night and will continue until the different trade studies are completed, Oberlander said.

The subjects taught include automotive, Tuesdays and Thursday from 7 to 9 p. m.; electrical, Monday from 6:30 to 10:30 p. m.; and machine, Mondays and Wednesdays from 7 to 9 p. m.

Instructors are V. C. Childs, R. D. Schaaf and E. P. Cook, members of the vocational department at the high school. Fees for the courses are $4 for a 12-week term, consisting of 48 hours.

Part of the salaries for these vocationel training teachers will be paid from the Smith-Hughes funds through the state department of vocational education, Oberlander said.

Lodge Seats New Officers

Eugene B. Boling as worshipful master headed the list of officials of Mansfield lodge No. 35, F. and A. M. installed at special ceremonies at Masonic Temple last night.

Others installed were: John C. Lorentz, senior warden; Gaylor M. Miller, junior warden; E. Corson Brower, treasurer; Arliss F. Porter, secretary; Charles H. Fuchs, chaplain; Stanley J. Knapp, senior deacon; Allen H. Mosey, junior deacon; Norman E. Leonard, senior steward; James H. Ackley, junior steward; Stanley L. Cramer and Esley Cleckner, assistant stewards; Raymond E. Bright, tyler.

Past masters of the lodge who did the installing included Homer L. Dent, E. C. Brower, D. M. Hedrick, W. H. Goodenough, A. F. Porter, Glen L. Robinson, F. A. Berkey, W. O. Leedy and Robert N. Campbell. Presentation of the past master's jewel was made to Leedy, outgoing worshipful master, by H. J. Dotson, also a past master.

Dotson presided at the meeting and Campbell acted as marshall. Following installation, refreshments were served in the dining room.

YMCA Merges Two Governing Bodies

The board of directors and the board of trustees of the YMCA last night were merged into one body.

The reorganization was effected at the monthly dinner meeting of "Y" heads at the YMCA building. The new group bears the name of the board of trustees. Thirty members are now on the board.

The six original trustees, in addition to places on the new board, were made members of a newly-created property and endowment committee. The committee will be responsible for all YMCA properties, capital funds, and endowments.

Committeemen are A. E. Courtney, George L. Draffan, Paul Eliot, C. H. Huston, Reese Mills, and Paul R. Tappan.

A committee was appointed to nominate candidates for the election to fill 11 vacancies on the board of trustees that will exist in January. The members include Reese Mills, Rev. Matthew G. Madden, A. B. Grafton, Robert Fichter, and Rev. David N. Roller.

SECRETARY OK'd

The trustees sanctioned employment of a boys' work secretary, and asked A. B. Grafton, chairman of the personnel committee, to look for a suitable person to fill the position. An attempt will be made to have the new man on the job by Jan. 1.

The board heard and approved a progress report on the $12,000 building rehabilitation program now under way at the "Y". Phillip Boiin, who was a representative to the national Hi-Y congress at Oxford, O., last summer, reported on his activities.

George W. Stephens was extended a vote of thanks for his success in raising $8,000 for the rehabilitation program. Rev. Madden also was thanked for having raised $4,000 among board members.

Window Smashed

Police were called to 338 Newman street last night where Mrs. Bryan Styert reported a broom had been thrown through the kitchen window. Officers searched the vicinity but were unable to find a suspect.

Senior 4-H Club Elects

Charles Clingan will head the Richland Senior 4-H club during the coming year. Other new officers include Beatrice Boals, vice president; Mary Lee Osbun, secretary; George Fike, treasurer; Joann Brook, news reporter, and Dick Wolford, recreation leader.

The officers were elected at a recent meeting at the home of Mary Lee Osbun, Mansfield, R. D. 1. They will take over their duties in January.

Ruth Brook was appointed chairman of a committee to plan next year's program. Betty Logan and Beatrice Boals will assist her.

Plans were made to hold a dinner party at the next meeting, Dec. 21. A Christmas exchange will be held at the party and new eligible members will be invited to attend.

The committee in charge of the party includes George Fike, Charles Clingan, Bill Wolford, Dick Wolford, Ruth Brook and Eleanor Brook.

Ruth Brook gave a report of the Ohio Older Rural Youth conference at Columbus which she attended on Oct. 29 and 30.

Tygers Guests At Evergreens Tonight

The Mansfield Tyger football players, who close their season tomorrow night at Martins Ferry, will be guests of James Brownscombe, at dinner tonight at the Evergreens cafeteria.

Brownscombe, proprietor of the resturant, said members of the squad would be served starting at 5:30 p. m. They will have their choice of turkey pie or any other item on the menu.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—

Although today is Harry B. Soulen's birthday, celebration is being held over until next week when the two Soulen sons come home from college. Robert, a student at Ann Arbor, Mich., and William from Purdue, will help their Dad celebrate in a big way next Thursday, Thanksgiving day. So today there were best wishes and congratulations from employes at the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company, where Soulen is vice president and factory manager, but otherwise the day will be a quiet one.

Soulen

In fact, Soulen, who is a busy man, almost forgot his birthday until someone said, "Best Wishes." Soulen is president of Mansfield's Chamber of Commerce, a Rotarian, and during the past year has been busy with plans for the new First Congregational church.

Another Mansfielder who is celebrating his birthday quietly today is John A. Parker, zone manager of the J. C. Penney company. Parker will observe his birthday at a quiet family gathering at his home.

Although hunting is one of his favorite sports, Parker has been laid up with a leg injury all week and has missed the early hunting.

He came to Mansfield from Zanesville in 1929.

He is a member of the Elks lodge, Westbrook Country club, Knights of Columbus, Fourth degree, and St. Peter's Catholic church.

Golf is another of his hobbies.

Parker is married and the father of two children, a married son who is attending the University of Cincinnati and a young daughter at home. He lives at 511 Edgewood road.

SIGNS OF SEASON—

Seventy huge 'mums, almost identical in size and of an ivory color, are decorating the Farmers Bank these days. They are the gift of Paul Eliot, president, who has the habit of remembering the different seasons with appropriate flowers. Soon the autumn mums will be replaced with poinsettias.

LIKES COMICS—

Mansfield ministers like action comics, too. Rev. John G. Gensel, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, told a meeting of Mansfield mothers yesterday that he always reads "Dick Tracy" in the comic strips. In fact, it's usually the first thing he reads in The News-Journal, he admitted. However, Rev. Gensel assured his audience that reading the comic strip did not make him want to commit crimes.

Commissioners Approve Pipeline

County commissioners have approved a petition filed by the Ohio Fuel Gas company requesting permission to install a gas pipeline through and under a number of roads in Madison township.

The resolution says the petition and agreement for constructing and operating the pipelines has the approval of the county engineer and the prosecutor.

Red Cross Requested To Help

Mobile Unit To Visit County

Mansfield and Richland county residents will be asked to provide 2,100 pints of blood annually for the blood donor program of the National Red Cross, which gets under way Dec. 7.

That quota was set last night by Donald Jones, representative of the regional blood donor center at Columbus, who spoke to Red Cross, civic and industrial leaders at a meeting at the chapter house.

Jones said at least 3,700,000 pints of blood will be needed each year to meet the nation's needs in blood therapy.

Only one out of every five hospitals has a private blood bank, Jones pointed out. That is the reason, he said, medical, health and hospital authorities decided in collaboration with the Army and Navy that a national blood program was needed. The Red Cross was asked to carry out the program.

At the meeting last night, 25 Mansfield representatives were told that the mobile unit would come to Richland county periodically to accept blood from donors. The blood will be collected here, returned to Columbus for processing and placed in a regional pool. Mansfield hospitals will receive blood from the pool on the basis of their needs.

HEADS CAMPAIGN

Jones' plea for Mansfield and county residents to get behind the program was seconded by Mrs. Stuart Weaver, chairman of the blood donor committee of the Red Cross here, who will cooperate with regional officials in seeing that the quota is obtained.

Mrs. Weaver told the group last night of the need for a coordinated blood donors' program here.

There has been a blood bank at General hospital on a limited scale, and from the frequent use of this bank, there is no doubt as to Mansfield's and Richland county's need for a more expanded blood bank, she said.

Patrol Boys Entertained

The first in a program of extra-curricular activities for members of the school-boy patrol at Newman school was held last night with Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ganea, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weber, Mrs. Philip Lodge, Miss Frances Wolfe, school safety adviser, and Robert Hartmann, principal, acting as hosts.

A football frolic was the first of the series. As patrol members entered the school last night each was given a bright-colored sash and told to get together for practice yells. A short business meeting was held and officers elected. These included: Donald Ernsberger, president; Lester Connell, vice president; Philip Tinkey, secretary; and Vonley Vance, sergeant-at arms.

Separating into two teams, the Army and Navy, the boys practiced scrimmage, lateral passing, forward passing, interference and tackling, the Navy finally winning over the Army team.

Later several reels of comedy and circus film were shown by Ganea. Refreshments were served.

City Firemen Make 3 Runs

Two industrial fires and a smoke scare at a Woodland home were reported in the city last night.

At 6:25 p. m. No. 4 station firemen extinguished a blaze in a steel saw at the Hughes-Keenan plant. The fire station has temporary quarters at the plant until the new No. 4 station is completed.

Blazing toilet paper in the Ohio Brass company's stock room brought out Central, No. 2 and No. 4 men at 7:47 p. m. Origin of the blaze was undetermined, but firemen said the sprinkler system in the room prevented spread of fire to other articles in the room.

No. 5 station firemen were called to 364 Taylor road at 9:24 p. m. where a furnace was smoking. Firemen said there was no damage.

Plymouth Branch Library To Be Opened Friday

PLYMOUTH—Plymouth library, branch of the Mansfield Public Library, will hold a formal opening from 7 to 9 p. m. Friday.

The library has been closed since Oct. 11 so that books and other equipment could be moved to its new location.

The library is now occupying three rooms of the Thomas house on the south side of the public square in Plymouth. All of the rooms have been newly remodeled. Residents of Plymouth donated time and money for the work.

One room of the library will be devoted to children's books. Another room will contain popular reading for adults.

A special collection of books for young people, especially those of high school age, has been added to the library.

The library formerly occupied one room in another building on the public square.

Miss Jessie Trauger is Plymouth librarian and Mrs. S. B. Bachrach is president of the Plymouth library board.

Members of 164th Fighter Unit Will Be Exempt From Draft

Men between the ages of 17 years and 18½ years, will be exempt from the draft by serving with the 164th Fighter squadron of the Ohio Air National Guard, Capt. William O. Ash announced today.

Governor Thomas J. Herbert issued a proclamation making it possible for the men in that age group to take their military training at home without interrupting their education or careers, Capt. Ash said

The Selective Service Act of 1948 states that governors of states may issue such proclamations when the authorized strength of National Guard units cannot be maintained. A man who enlists in the National Guard prior to attaining the age of 18 years, six months is deferred so long as he "continues to serve satisfactorily."

Those men interested in joining the 164th should apply at squadron headquarters, hangar 7, Mansfield Municipal airport

Applicants can report at the regular weekly training periods held every other week end. Further information about the Air National Guard may be obtained by calling 4207-3.

Air National Guardsmen receive a full day's pay at regular air force rates for every two-hour training period. Veterans get an additional five per cent for every three years of service.

Everyone Suggests Cabinet Names So Newsman Compiles His Own List

NEW YORK—(AP)—President Truman is finding no shortage of volunteer carpenters in his task of building his 1949 cabinet.

Everybody is lumbering up with a new idea. If all who have been suggested for a place were included, the cabinet would have to have more posts than a fence around Texas.

Jest in fun, Editor and Publisher, magazine of the press, nominated a formidable cabinet composed entirely of newspapermen.

And Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Producers association, more seriously advanced the thought that America's top labor leaders should be chosen for key diplomatic jobs abroad.

This idea is fascinating. If it is carried out, my nominee for ambassador of England is John L. Lewis. His $50,000 salary and $25,000 expense account give him the necessary financial background.

And what an impressive figure old John would make at the court of St. James's—with his florid Shakespearean oratory, his ponderous, eloquent eyebrows. In knee breeches and silk hose he would be unforgettable. The labor government of England would have to sit up and listen to a man who won a $100 a month pension for American coal miners.

Perhaps it is time we widened the whole base on which government leaders are appointed—and include men and women from all classes. It is an essence of the democratic belief that people grow with responsibility.

And this is an era of experiment anyway. The nation's foreign policy of seeking world peace is largely being carried out by professional military men even as, paradoxically, gentle scientists are researching the weapons for a possible third world war.

Just for a starter, I have compiled a tentative list of appointees, which is being forwarded to Key West by the next passenger pigeon that flies this way. Here it is:

For secretary of agriculture—Milton Berle, who has run the price of corn up to the highest peak in history. Or Fred Allen, who gets about as much for chaff.

Secretary of labor—Tommy Manville, who makes work out of play.

Secretary of the interior—Sherman Billingsley of the Stork club, who has made a career out of satisfying the inner man.

Secretary of the treasury—Bernard Baruch, because in crowded Washington his fondness for a park bench would save office space. Alternate choice: Jack Benny, who spends a dime finger by finger.

Secretary of defense—Greta Garbo. She keeps her barriers high.

Attorney-general—some good bartender. He'll never drop a case.

Postmaster-general—Lana Turner. Everybody would love to play postoffice with her.

Secretary of state—Barbara Hutton. As chief of foreign affairs, she'd have the experience to keep us out of entangling alliances.

And for U. S. representative to the United Nations, nobody but that arch diplomat of the diamond—Leo Durocher. Whenever Vishinsky rose to voice his perennial charge that the U. S. is trying to build an empire, Leo would have his answer ready:

"Who wants an empire? Not us. No empire was ever any good."

With a team like that America could never strike out.

Walter Winchell

College, High School Journalism Students Put Columnist On Spot

INTERVIEW

Following Sunday's broadcast Univ. of Miami and Senior High School editors, who witnessed it, put us on the following spot:

Q: What do you think will happen to the two newly formed parties, the Dixiecrats and the Progressives?

A: The Dixiecrats are cracking up now. But they should join the Republican diehards. The Liberal Republicans should join the Democrats. Senators Morse of Oregon and Ives of N. Y. (Republicans) are far more liberal than Senator Byrd of Virginia, a bitterly conservative Democrat. . . . I don't know what the Progressive (The Wallaceites) will do next and neither do they, until they read the Party-Line in The Daily Scummunist.

Q: What basic advice have you for young people planning a journalistic career?

A: You can't plan newspaper work. It is the only profession where irregularity happens regularly....Reporting is an addiction, not a vocation. The only excuse for being a reporter is that you can't help it. Unless you'd sooner have a press card in your hat than a million dollars in your wallet, don't wast your time—or an editor's.

Q: What is your solution for combatting juvenile delinquency?

A: The first step is for adults to be honest with themselves. I'm enough of a reporter, I think, to know that there's always too much self-complacency (plus smugness and hypocrisy) present when unluck people are put in a class and given a bad name. I think juve-delink needs more attention and less publicity. There's very littel wrong with the younger generation that couldn't be cured by more honesty in the older one.

Q: What are the main shortcomings of the U. N.?

A: Its shortcomings are that it was stabbed in the back by its own bodyguards. That the Nations of the world measured it in power instead of in souls....That it was begrudged a few acres in which to make peace—in a world in which there are hundreds of square miles of military cemetries ....The nations have even refused to cooperate on the feeding of 30 million orphans....In short, there is nothing the matter with the United Nations, except that the Nations never unite—except for war.

Q: Has the U. N. accomplished anything to its outstanding credit?

A: Yes, it has. It has been and it is the hope of the common people all over the world. The diplomats are so afraid of this greatest of all forces—The Will of the Common People— that though they despise it in private and insult it in public, no nation on earth feels itself powerful enough to take the responsibility for killing it. The U. N. (in the diplomatic world) is hated by the diplomats the way a crook hates his conscience. The U. N.'s greatest service is that no nation dares leave its fingerprints on the throat of peace. There's hope-because no one has nerve enough to kill this baby.

Q: Have you a solution to the Palestine problem?

A: Stop sending U. S. arms and money to England, which keeps sharing it with the Arabs. Our Founding Fathers didn't like it when the country was having labor pains and the Hessians butted in.

★

Q: Whom do you think the Republicans will nominate next time?

A: Eisenhower, if they can get him away from the Democrats.

Sets Time For Next Depression

Marion Attorney Talks to Credit Men

The next depression will come "when all the money in circulation will not buy all the goods for sale at prices being charged at any one time," Ben Wiant, Marion attorney, told members of the North Central Ohio division of the National Association of Credit Men last night.

Members met for the dinner meeting at the Richland Recreation.

Wiant said he believed Americans have turned the corner and that the upward inflationary spiral will soon start the other way.

"You can change the political administration any time, but you cannot change the economic pattern," he said. "Even though the Taft-Hartley law may be repealed, you cannot change the law of supply and demand."

Although inflation may continue, he said, he did not believe it would be a runaway inflation since the government is not spending above the national income and the currency has not reached the "printing press stage."

A corporation lawyer, Wiant is treasurer and attorney for the Osgood company, the Alloy Cast Steel company, General Excavator company and the Commercial Steel Casting company. He also serves as executive secretary of the Marion Youth Fund.

Wiant was introduced by the retiring president of the group, J. A. Mintz.

ELECT REASER

Election of officers for the organization resulted in the selection of H. A. Reaser, credit manager of the F. E. Myers and Bros. company of Ashland, as president; G. R. Cashell, credit manager of the Barnes Manufacturing company as vice president, and E. J. Osborne, treasury department of Westinghouse, as secretary-treasurer.

Additional directors of the group are Mintz, treasurer of the Barnes Manufacturing company; F. A. Ferguson, manager of the treasury department of Westinghouse; C. S. Watters, assistant treasurer of Ohio Seamless Tube company; C. N. Sutton, executive vice president of the Richland Trust company; F. F. Corfman, treasurer of the W. A. Riddell corporation, and Miss E. M. Flowers, credit-manager of the Ohio Overcoat company.

New officers will be installed Dec. 10 at a dinner party for the group. On Jan. 18, Russell Weisman, of the Cleveland Plain Dealer editorial staff, will address the organization on "What's Ahead For 1949."

Loaded Rifle Amuses Four Small Boys

Police last night halted what could have turned into a tragic few minutes of play for four small boys ranging in age from eight to 10 years old.

Officers, hurrying to Woodlawn avenue on a report of an observant neighbor, found the boys playing with a loaded .22 calibre rifle.

Besides a lengthy talking-to for the boys on the danger of loaded firearms, police remonstrated the baby-sitter for allowing the children to get possession of the gun. Police ordered the gun locked up and out of reach of the children.

Officers said they confiscated 12 cartridges from the gun.

Indiana Police Join Search

Report Seeing Torture Pair

BRYAN —(INS)— A man and woman who tortured and robbed a Greenville couple were reported seen at least four times near Bryan today.

Indiana police immediately joined the search for the couple who held Robert Cooper, 40, and his wife, Kathleen, 36, for two hours Monday night and cut three rings valued at more than $2,000 from Mrs. Cooper's fingers.

Cooper was beaten and four of his teeth were pulled because the robbers were dissatisfied with the amount of loot.

The Ohio state patrol said the most reliable tip came today from a truck driver who told the Indiana state police he had seen the robber pair hitch-hiking toward Indiana.

The Indiana state police put down an intensive watch over U. S. Route 6 from Bryan into Indiana.

Cooper said he did not lose consciousness during the two-hour beating he took about the face and head.

He told police the robber couple accosted him and his wife as they emerged from their car at their home about midnight, blindfolded them with adhesive tape, then wrecked the house in their search.

TORTURE VICTIMS—Robert Cooper, 40, and his wife, Kathleen, 36, of Greenville, O., are shown above as they appeared after a man and woman robbed the couple. The robbers pulled four of Cooper's teeth with a pair of pliers.—(International)

The bandits apparently were disappointed over the amount of cash they found in Cooper's safe. They stole a fur coat belonging to Mrs. Cooper and some of Mrs. Cooper's clothing.

Mrs. Cooper loosened the tape binding her feet and called police from a neighbor's home.

34 Sign Up For Course

Night Classes Get Under Way

There are still 11 openings in the evening trade extension courses at Senior high school, V. H Oberlander said today. The maximum for these classes is 45, and 34 have registered this week.

Classes began Monday night and will continue until the different trade studies are completed, Oberlander said.

The subjects taught include automotive, Tuesdays and Thursday from 7 to 9 p. m.; electrical, Monday from 6:30 to 10:30 p. m.; and machine, Mondays and Wednesdays from 7 to 9 p. m.

Instructors are V. C. Childs, R. D. Schaaf and E. P. Cook, members of the vocational department at the high school. Fees for the courses are $4 for a 12-week term, consisting of 48 hours.

Part of the salaries for these vocationel training teachers will be paid from the Smith-Hughes funds through the state department of vocational education, Oberlander said.

Lodge Seats New Officers

Eugene B. Boling as worshipful master headed the list of officials of Mansfield lodge No. 35, F. and A. M. installed at special ceremonies at Masonic Temple last night.

Others installed were: John C. Lorentz, senior warden; Gaylor M. Miller, junior warden; E. Corson Brower, treasurer; Arliss F. Porter, secretary; Charles H. Fuchs, chaplain; Stanley J. Knapp, senior deacon; Allen H. Mosey, junior deacon; Norman E. Leonard, senior steward; James H. Ackley, junior steward; Stanley L. Cramer and Esley Cleckner, assistant stewards; Raymond E. Bright, tyler.

Past masters of the lodge who did the installing included Homer L. Dent, E. C. Brower, D. M. Hedrick, W. H. Goodenough, A. F. Porter, Glen L. Robinson, F. A. Berkey, W. O. Leedy and Robert N. Campbell. Presentation of the past master's jewel was made to Leedy, outgoing worshipful master, by H. J. Dotson, also a past master.

Dotson presided at the meeting and Campbell acted as marshall. Following installation, refreshments were served in the dining room.

Resume Hearing

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—(AP)—The Public Service commission will resume hearing a New York Central request to abandon two Charleston - Columbus, O., trains next Monday. A similar application, covering the Ohio section of the run, is pending before the Ohio Utilities commission.

YMCA Merges Two Governing Bodies

The board of directors and the board of trustees of the YMCA last night were merged into one body.

The reorganization was effected at the monthly dinner meeting of "Y" heads at the YMCA building. The new group bears the name of the board of trustees. Thirty members are now on the board.

The six original trustees, in addition to places on the new board, were made members of a newly-created property and endowment committee. The committee will be responsible for all YMCA properties, capital funds, and endowments.

Committeemen are A. E. Courtney, George L. Draffan, Paul Eliot, C. H. Huston, Reese Mills, and Paul R. Tappan.

A committee was appointed to nominate candidates for the election to fill 11 vacancies on the board of trustees that will exist in January. The members include Reese Mills, Rev. Matthew G. Madden, A. B. Grafton, Robert Fichter, and Rev. David N. Roller.

SECRETARY OK'd

The trustees sanctioned employment of a boys' work secretary, and asked A. B. Grafton, chairman of the personnel committee, to look for a suitable person to fill the position. An attempt will be made to have the new man on the job by Jan. 1.

The board heard and approved a progress report on the $12,000 building rehabilitation program now under way at the "Y". Phillip Bolin, who was a representative to the national Hi-Y congress at Oxford, O., last summer, reported on his activities.

George W. Stephens was extended a vote of thanks for his success in raising $8,000 for the rehabilitation program. Rev. Madden also was thanked for having raised $4,000 among board members.

Window Smashed

Police were called to 338 Newman street last night where Mrs. Bryan Styert reported a broom had been thrown through the kitchen window. Officers searched the vicinity but were unable to find a suspect.

Senior 4-H Club Elects

Charles Clingan will head the Richland Senior 4-H club during the coming year. Other new officers include Beatrice Boals, vice president; Mary Lee Osbun, secretary; George Fike, treasurer; Joann Brook, news reporter, and Dick Wolford, recreation leader.

The officers were elected at a recent meeting at the home of Mary Lee Osbun, Mansfield, R. D. 1. They will take over their duties in January.

Ruth Brook was appointed chairman of a committee to plan next year's program. Betty Logan and Beatrice Boals will assist her.

Plans were made to hold a dinner party at the next meeting, Dec. 21. A Christmas exchange will be held at the party and new eligible members will be invited to attend.

The committee in charge of the party includes George Fike, Charles Clingan, Bill Wolford, Dick Wolford, Ruth Brook and Eleanor Brook.

Ruth Brook gave a report of the Ohio Older Rural Youth conference at Columbus which she attended on Oct. 29 and 30.

Tygers Guests At Evergreens Tonight

The Mansfield Tyger football players, who close their season tomorrow night at Martins Ferry, will be guests of James Brownscombe, at dinner tonight at the Evergreens cafeteria.

Brownscombe, proprietor of the resturant, said members of the squad would be served starting at 5:30 p. m. They will have their choice of turkey pie or any other item on the menu.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—

Although today is Harry B. Soulen's birthday, celebration is being held over until next week when the two Soulen sons come home from college. Robert, a student at Ann Arbor, Mich., and William from Purdue, will help their Dad celebrate in a big way next Thursday, Thanksgiving day. So today there were best wishes and congratulations from employes at the Mansfield Tire and Rubber company, where Soulen is vice president and factory manager, but otherwise the day will be a quiet one.

Soulen

In fact, Soulen, who is a busy man, almost forgot his birthday until someone said, "Best Wishes." Soulen is president of Mansfield's Chamber of Commerce, a Rotarian, and during the past year has been busy with plans for the new First Congregational church.

Another Mansfielder who is celebrating his birthday quietly today is John A. Parker, zone manager of the J. C. Penney company. Parker will observe his birthday at a quiet family gathering at his home.

Although hunting is one of his favorite sports, Parker has been laid up with a leg injury all week and has missed the early hunting.

He came to Mansfield from Zanesville in 1929.

He is a member of the Elks lodge, Westbrook Country club, Knights of Columbus, Fourth degree, and St. Peter's Catholic church.

Golf is another of his hobbies.

Parker is married and the father of two children, a married son who is attending the University of Cincinnati and a young daughter at home. He lives at 511 Edgewood road.

SIGNS OF SEASON—

Seventy huge 'mums, almost identical in size and of an ivory color, are decorating the Farmers Bank these days. They are the gift of Paul Eliot, president, who has the habit of remembering the different seasons with appropriate flowers. Soon the autumn mums will be replaced with poinsettias.

LIKES COMICS—

Mansfield ministers like action comics, too. Rev. John G. Gensel, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, told a meeting of Mansfield mothers yesterday that he always reads "Dick Tracy" in the comic strips. In fact, it's usually the first thing he reads in The News-Journal, he admitted. However, Rev. Gensel assured his audience that reading the comic strip did not make him want to commit crimes.

Commissioners Approve Pipeline

County commissioners have approved a petition filed by the Ohio Fuel Gas company requesting permission to install a gas pipeline through and under a number of roads in Madison township.

The resolution says the petition and agreement for constructing and operating the pipelines has the approval of the county engineer and the prosecutor.

Red Cross Requested To Help

Mobile Unit To Visit County

Mansfield and Richland county residents will be asked to provide 2,100 pints of blood annually for the blood donor program of the National Red Cross, which gets under way Dec. 7.

That quota was set last night by Donald Jones, representative of the regional blood donor center at Columbus, who spoke to Red Cross, civic and industrial leaders at a meeting at the chapter house.

Jones said at least 3,700,000 pints of blood will be needed each year to meet the nation's needs in blood therapy.

Only one out of every five hospitals has a private blood bank, Jones pointed out. That is the reason, he said, medical, health and hospital authorities decided in collaboration with the Army and Navy that a national blood program was needed. The Red Cross was asked to carry out the program.

At the meeting last night, 25 Mansfield representatives were told that the mobile unit would come to Richland county periodically to accept blood from donors. The blood will be collected here, returned to Columbus for processing and placed in a regional pool. Mansfield hospitals will receive blood from the pool on the basis of their needs.

HEADS CAMPAIGN

Jones' plea for Mansfield and county residents to get behind the program was seconded by Mrs. Stuart Weaver, chairman of the blood donor committee of the Red Cross here, who will cooperate with regional officials in seeing that the quota is obtained.

Mrs. Weaver told the group last night of the need for a coordinated blood donors' program here.

There has been a blood bank at General hospital on a limited scale, and from the frequent use of this bank, there is no doubt as to Mansfield's and Richland county's need for a more expanded blood bank, she said.

Patrol Boys Entertained

The first in a program of extra-curricular activities for members of the school-boy patrol at Newman school was held last night with Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ganea, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weber, Mrs. Philip Lodge, Miss Frances Wolfe, school safety adviser, and Robert Hartmann, principal, acting as hosts.

A football frolic was the first of the series. As patrol members entered the school last night each was given a bright-colored sash and told to get together for practice yells. A short business meeting was held and officers elected. These included: Donald Ernsberger, president; Lester Connell, vice president; Philip Tinkey, secretary; and Vonley Vance, sergeant-at arms.

Separating into two teams, the Army and Navy, the boys practiced scrimmage, lateral passing, forward passing, interference and tackling, the Navy finally winning over the Army team.

Later several reels of comedy and circus film were shown by Ganea. Refreshments were served.

City Firemen Make 3 Runs

Two industrial fires and a smoke scare at a Woodland home were reported in the city last night.

At 6:25 p. m. No. 4 station firemen extinguished a blaze in a steel saw at the Hughes-Keenan plant. The fire station has temporary quarters at the plant until the new No. 4 station is completed.

Blazing toilet paper in the Ohio Brass company's stock room brought out Central, No. 2 and No. 4 men at 7:47 p. m. Origin of the blaze was undertermined, but firemen said the sprinkler system in the room prevented spread of fire to other articles in the room.

No. 5 station firemen were called to 364 Taylor road at 9:24 p. m. where a furnace was smoking. Firemen said there was no damage.

Plymouth Branch Library To Be Opened Friday

PLYMOUTH—Plymouth library, branch of the Mansfield Public Library, will hold a formal opening from 7 to 9 p. m. Friday.

The library has been closed since Oct. 11 so that books and other equipment could be moved to its new location.

The library is now occupying three rooms of the Thomas house on the south side of the public square in Plymouth. All of the rooms have been newly remodeled. Residents of Plymouth donated time and money for the work.

One room of the library will be devoted to children's books. Another room will contain popular reading for adults.

A special collection of books for young people, especially those of high school age, has been added to the library.

The library formerly occupied one room in another building on the public square.

Miss Jessie Trauger is Plymouth librarian and Mrs. S. B. Bachrach is president of the Plymouth library board.

The Plymouth library also receives funds from the Willard Memorial library.

County Plans 'Hot Room' At Its Garage

Installation of a "hot room," a wash rack, a toilet room and a storeroom at the county highway garage was authorized yesterday by the county commissioners.

Estimated cost of the materials is $596. The work will be done by county forces.

County Engineer Walter E. Rusk said the hot room will be used to wash off road trucks that arrive covered with ice and snow, and also as a paint room.

The resolution said that cement blocks for the work will be purchased from Cement Products company, electrical supplies from the Hartman-Spreng company and pipe from Voegele Bros company. The work will be done in January.

Vets See Egg Co-Op

Richland county veterans taking on-the-job farm training made an inspection tour Wednesday.

The 80 veterans went to New Washington to see the North Central Egg and Poultry cooperative in operation and to Tiffin to visit the Northern Ohio Breeders' association headquarters.

County Agent C. N. McGrew said the group would hear a talk today at 8 p. m. in the Court of Appeals room in the court house, by F. W. Dean, extension specialist of Ohio State university. Dean will speak on woodlot management and show movies on the subject.

The veterans attend classes at night at one of four county high schools — Shelby, Lucas, Union, or Shiloh. Their work during the day is under the supervision of their instructors. The instructors are Vance Clever, Byron Bricker, Waldo Crum aand Charles Kirkwood.

CLASS PLAY BOOKED

JOHNSVILLE — The junior class play, "Everybody's Getting Married," will be staged at 8 p. m. Thursday and Friday in the high school auditorium. The cast lists 14 students.

School Plan Meeting Set

Parents of school children attending Mifflin schools and residents of the township today were urged to attend a meeting today at 8 p. m. in Vetsville hall when the type of school building to be constructed will be discussed.

County Supt. of Schools Boyd Robinson said plans are to construct a six-room school to replace five one-room schools now being used. The new school will go up on the site of the Center Hall school on U. S. Route 30.

The Mifflin board of education has $72,000 to build the new school. Of that, 24,000 was made available in a bond issue passed last Nov. 2 while $48,000 was obtained through an earlier bond issue.

German Fined

PASSAU, GERMANY, — (INS) — Capt. Fritz Weidemann, former German consul at San Francisco, was given a light sentence today at the conclusion of his trial by denazification court. Wiedemann was termed only a "follower" of the Nazis and was ordered to pay a fine of 2,000 marks and expenses of the trial.

Steel-Making Industry Aims At Record Peacetime Output

CLEVELAND — (UP) — Steel production this year appears headed for a new peacetime record of more than 88,000,000 tons, the magazine Steel says.

The trade journal reported more metal was produced in October than in any month in history and added that steelmakers are pressing to hold operations at or above the current rate of 99 per cent of capacity.

The magazine's figures showed, however, that 1948 output will be far below the war year of 1944 when production reached an all-time high of 98,641,600 tons.

Steel's weekly price survey disclosed only three scattered increases last week, and the magazine speculated that steelmakers will "move cautiously" in making further increases "in view of President Truman's position on prices.'

"It can be accepted that they will do everything possible to discourage government price fixing," Steel said.

The magazine reported continued delay in setting up consumer quotas for the first quarter of 1949 because of uncertainty over the future of certified programs. It said most observers believe mandatory controls over allocations will not be applied "short of a war crisis," and added:

"It is felt, however, that standby mandatory powers may be granted the president to implement the voluntary allocations program, which, it now appears, stands a better chance of being extended.

In other steel industry developments, the trade journal reported that the defense program is taking increasing tonnage. Ordnance and other military uses received 17,102 tons in August—only 51 tons less than they took in the preceding seven months.

Steelmaking operations held at the record peacetime level of 99 per cent last week, the magazine said. Operations gained 1½ points to 97 per cent at Pittsburgh and 1½ to 92.5 at Wheeling.

Old Landmark Hit In Dust Explosion

SANDUSKY—(AP)—A dust explosion during a fire blew a wall of bricks from the old Biemiller Opera house into a downtown street last night, but no one was injured. Hundreds of spectators watched all of the city's available firemen save the old landmark from destruction. The fire started from undetermined cause in a properties room behind the stage, and Acting Fire Chief Clarence Owen blamed the explosion on an accumulation of dust in that room.

Horst Transfers To South Bend

Vernon A. Horst, 513 Clifton boulevard, manager of the Mansfield district of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, has been transferred in the same capacity to the South Bend, Ind., district.

He has been with the firm since 1932 when he became an agent. He was promoted to assistant manager in 1934 and made manager in 1947.

Pa. Auto Dealer Defends 'Extras'

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Auto dealers can't eat extra spotlights, fender skirts, wheel rings, and other things that often come with a new car, Edward A. Sahli, of Beaver Falls, Pa., declared yesterday. Sahli is past president of the Pennsylvania Automotive association. He told the Ohio automobile Dealers' association that many accessories come installed and manufacturerrs send packages of others with instructions to sell all possible.

Drill Well, Water Threatens Farms

FREMONT—(AP)—When a new well in Townsend township turned into a gusher with a flow estimated at 170,000 gallons a day, Erie county engineer's crews went into action yesterday to save several farms from inundation. The gusher, which came from an underground stream, was channeled into an old tile ditch, hastily cleared to carry the water.

Two Enlist In Army

Two Mansfielders enlisted in the army yesterday, the U. S. Army Recruiting office announced today The recruits are Robert W. Hoff, 17, of 56 Hedges street, and Edward E. Bullock, 18, of 77 Marion avenue.

AN ODD EXPLANATION

A woman complained to her grocer that her hot cereal took too long to cook.

"Try Grape-Nuts Wheat-Meal," he said. "You'll be through cooking it in 3½ minutes."

Next day she was back. "It took me twice as long as you said," she said, in mock anger.

"How do you explain that?" asked the grocer.

"Why," she replied. "It tasted so good my family made me cook up another batch."

Mansfield Girls Sign For Play In 'Rec' Volleyball

Fifty-five Mansfield girls turned out at Johnny Appleseed gym last night for the first organized volleyball session, sponsored by the Mansfield Recreation department.

Describing the group as a "nucleus from which the recreational needs of Mansfield women can be determined," Mrs. Virginia G. Karby, supervisor of the sport, urged more young women to turn out for the sport.

Sessions will be held every Wednesday at Appleseed gym from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. League play will begin Nov. 24.

Divided into six teams last night the players elected captains of their various groups and two committee members from each team to serve on a rules committee.

Teams and their elected captains are: Volley Belles, Ruth Copeland; Outcasts, Ann Schoenman; Orphans, Mary Berry; Charges, Virginia Zara; Lumberettes, Norma Mitchell, and Black Sheep, Evelyn Winters.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Willie Bean, 200, Los Angeles, knocked out Jimmy Bell, 198, Baltimore, 3.

Automatic Watchman Control

A New Sensation in Sleeping Comfort

This new Electric Sheet has everyone talking! You get safe, automatically controlled warmth without weight. The Automatic Watchman Control maintains the warmth you select the whole night through.

Use It with Your Favorite Top Cover. Simply spread the Electric Sheet over the regular top sheet. Then any blanket, quilt or comforter you now have can be used as a top cover. Fits double or twin beds. Plugs into any a-c outlet.

Takes Little Room. Carry It on Trips. Packs easily in an overnight bag. Washes easily, all electric parts sealed against moisture.

"Sure, it'll start right up, Mom... Dad filled it with MARATHON GASOLINE. It's now SEASONIZED* for WINTER!"

*CHANGED WITH THE SEASONS! Yes, Marathon Gasoline is Seasonized... adjusted to different seasonal temperatures four times a year. That's why you're getting Marathon Gasoline, right now, that "likes" cold weather. See for yourself—it's the refinery blend that means: (1) Faster starting on "ear-muff" mornings; (2) Quicker warm-up and pick-up; (3) Smoother operation; (4) More rugged power; (5) More mileage at low temperatures.
